DOUBLE SHOOTING

Two Men Accidentally Injured While Hunting in Maine

BINGHAM, Me., Nov. 10.—A double shooting accident among hunters occurred today near Indian pond, 35 miles north of here. Walter Dyer, aged 40, of Solon, was shot through the lungs and is in a very critical condition. It had not been possible to bring him out of the woods up to early forenoon. John Tuscan of Solon was shot through the fleshy part of the arm but the wound was not considered serious. Both men were mistaken for deer and were members of a party of four from Solon who had divided into pairs.

CITY HALL NEWS

Meeting of Aldermen to Draw Jurors

A special meeting of the board of aldermen will be called within a few days for the purpose of drawing jurors for the criminal court now holding in Cambridge. The call for the drawing of the jurors was received at the city clerk's office today.

Quite extensive repairs are being made on the stores on either side of the Merrimack Square theatre. The stores are owned by Mr. White and the improvements include plate glass fronts and tile ballroom over the stores.

Mayor Meehan today signed the order for $500 for an auto police patrol; the joint order requesting the park commission to make the "Anne street park" "Lucy Larcom park," and the order for the location of poles in Moore and Andrews streets.

REV. FR. SMITH

ENTERTAINED MEMBERS OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE

At the new Sacred Heart school hall Tuesday evening the committee in charge of the recent bazaar were the guests of Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I. and the priests of the parish. Every one who was on the committee, old and young, was present, and had an enjoyable time. During the evening a buffet lunch was served. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of an orchestra of three pieces.

Tomorrow evening at the school hall the various articles on the many tables at the bazaar will be awarded to the winners. All are cordially invited to attend.

On Thanksgiving eve at the school hall an entertainment and dancing party will be held. The entertainment will be in charge of Miss Elizabeth L. Miskella, who is an adept at that business. The general manager of the party is Dr. J. B. O'Connor, assisted by Mr. James E. Burns. On that evening the hall will be beautifully decorated. On Thanksgiving afternoon an entertainment will be given for the children.

All moving season tickets for the bazaar are advised to make returns for them as the coupons will be drawn off at intermission on Thanksgiving eve.

COULD HARDLY HEAR

Senses of Taste and Smell Were Also Greatly Impaired

"I was afflicted with catarrh," writes Eugene Forbes, Lebanon, Kansas. "I took several different medicines, giving each a fair trial, but grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I was about to give up in despair, but concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking three bottles of this medicine I was cured, and have not had any return of the disease."

Hood's Sarsaparilla effects radical and permanent cures of catarrh. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

TWO MEN DEAD

They Were Shot While in District Attorney's Office

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Walter G. Fall, indicted and awaiting trial on a charge of assault on a fourteen year old girl, shot and killed Frank Rees, step-father of the child, and Police Sergeant Frederick Schlehuber, the principal witnesses against him, as they were waiting in the district attorney's office today to lay their evidence before District Attorney Joseph Pelletier. Fall then attempted to commit suicide, but was overpowered and placed under arrest.

Fall was indicted recently for assaulting Rees' stepdaughter, Esther Fogg, and the case was about to come to trial in the superior criminal court. Fall, in the meantime, had furnished sureties and was out on bail.

This forenoon Rees and Schlehuber went to the district attorney's office in the Suffolk county court house in Pemberton square to talk over the case with the district attorney.

Fall and his attorney, Benjamin Haines, also called at the district attorney's office. Hardly had Fall entered the room when he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at Rees and Schlehuber. Rees fell dead and Schlehuber died within a few minutes at the relief hospital. The policemen on duty in the district attorney's office grappled with Fall as soon as they could reach him and the murderer put up a fierce struggle, attempting to end his own life. He was soon overpowered, however, and taken across Pemberton square to police headquarters, where he was committed to the care of Captain Dugan, the department investigator of all homicide cases.

Attorney Haines said after the shooting that Fall's action was most unexpected. Fall, the attorney said, had appeared calm and had given no indication of any kind that he held any feeling of resentment toward either Rees or Schlehuber, nor did Haines have any idea that Fall carried a revolver. Mr. Haines said that Fall fired at his victim as soon as he entered the district attorney's office and in each case the bullet entered the face, probably penetrating the brain.

Fall is a slim young man, of about 24 years old. He was employed at the state house in the office of the sealer of weights and measures.

Rees was employed at a South Boston business house as an auditor and lived at 21 Tremlett street, Dorchester.

Police Sergeant Schlehuber was attached to the Dorchester district police station and lived at 9 Vinson street, Dorchester.

Fall resided at 60 Babcock street, Brookline.

Within two hours after the shooting Fall was brought before Judge Parmer in the municipal court and held without bail on a charge of murder. The case will be presented to the grand jury tomorrow by Dist. Atty. Pelletier.

On the way to prison Fall told one of the officers that he was anxious to marry the little Fogg girl but that such action was bitterly opposed by Rees.

The alienists will visit Fall tomorrow and examine him.

ALD. R. K. DEXTER IN POLICE COURT

Out as Candidate for Mayoralty Nomination

By a definite announcement of his intention to run for the mayoralty nomination on the republican ticket, Alderman Royal K. Dexter has set at rest the various inquiries as to whether he would be a candidate.

Speaking of his decision last evening he said: "I did not wish to inject my candidacy into any phase of the state election, which seemed to be raging all over about Lowell. I know there have been rumors, one way and the other, about it, but I thought it better to wait."

Mr. Dexter said: "I expect to win and I expect to win by fair, clean methods. If it takes any other kind then I don't want to be the nominee. However, I see no reason why there should be any descent to personalities in the campaign. I shall not speak on the street corners, but will appear before various organizations in the city and at public rallies."

"I believe in a conservative administration of the city, but not one which means inefficiency. I believe in being progressive, but not radically so. There are some things which can be done by a straight business administration, but business isn't magic and not everything can be changed in a minute or a month, or even a year. I think the citizens will readily see the sort of administration I aim at, and I have received many assurances that this is what they want."

Mr. Dexter admitted that he has had much encouragement in entering the fight. He did not decide until he had quietly canvassed sentiment among the republicans throughout the city.

Mr. Dexter feels that his past service in the city council, two years in the lower board and three including the present in the upper, has given the citizens an opportunity to judge whether he is the kind of man they should select for mayor of the city.

Throughout that time he has been constantly a member of the committee on appropriations, the committee which probably has had more to do with a direction of public expenditures than any other board or committee connected with the government. He was born in Lowell has always lived here, and is connected with the S. K. Dexter, wholesale house at 360 Middlesex street. He is well known in business circles throughout the city. His home is at 319 Wilder street.

SMOOTH PAVING VT. LEGISLATURE

Merrimack Street Job Nearly Finished

If the weather holds good for a week or ten days the smooth paving job in Merrimack street, between the railroad crossing in Dutton street and Tilden street, will be a thing of the past. The weather for the last week or so has been anything but favorable, but Supt. Putnam believes there is yet time for the completion of the work in Merrimack street before the snow flies.

The Lawrence street bridge is the biggest job that the street department has on its hands at the present time. Both the Lawrence street bridge and the Congress street bridge span Hale's brook, but conditions are not the same at both places.

The Congress street bridge is almost completed and it was not a very hard job because there was a good gravel foundation, but in the case of the Lawrence street bridge quicksand was encountered and it will be necessary to build the bridge on piles.

City Civil Engineer Bowers said today that in addition to the temporary bridge in Lawrence street, that a new footwalk would be built for the proper accommodation of the people in that section. "We did not suppose that the job would take so long," said Mr. Bowers, "but we have encountered a foundation that is very bad, to say the least. It is all quicksand and it will be necessary to build the bridge on piles. This means a long job and it is something that we did not anticipate."

REV. DR. STANLEY DEAD

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Rev. Dr. Charles Alfred Stanley, for nearly half a century a missionary in China for the American board, died today at the residence of his daughter at Winthrop Centre, aged 75 years. He had been stationed at Tien Tsen, China, since 1862 and was on furlough when his death occurred. Dr. Stanley was a native of Fearing, O., and was a graduate of Marietta college in the class of 1888. He is survived by two daughters and a son, Charles A. Stanley, Jr., who is a missionary in North China.

MAY BUY COAL MINE

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Henry M. Whitcomb, president of the Rhode Island Coal Co., when asked today if Pennsylvania coal interests have been negotiating with him for a controlling interest in the mine at Portsmouth, R. I., said: "You can't always believe everything you hear."

He admitted that Pennsylvania mining experts had been examining the property.

A WAYWARD BOY

Arrested and Sent Back to Home

Harold Lloyd, aged 13 years, and living in Somerville, was arrested in Billerica yesterday by Police Officer E. W. Livingston, after the latter had received word that the boy had stolen $13 from his employer in Somerville.

According to the story given out by the police the boy had been working for a Mr. McGinnis, baker, in Somerville, and stole $13. After taking the money yesterday the boy left Somerville and as a result of information received it was thought that he had headed for Billerica.

Officer Livingston was notified by telephone to be on the lookout for the alleged thief and the former ran across the boy at the waiting station. The boy was too quick for the custodian of the police and succeeded in escaping arrest for the time being, but Officer Livingston secured a carriage and caught Lloyd on River street in the town.

Last night the boy was taken back to Somerville by an officer of the latter place.

CHECK DIVORCES

Archbishop O'Connell Says Halt Must Be Called

BOSTON, November 10.—Speaking last evening before the Associated Charities of Boston, at the organization's annual meeting in Jacob Sleeper hall, Archbishop O'Connell characterized divorce as a national menace and placed emphasis upon the necessity of safeguarding the family for the sake of preventing disintegration of the state, if for no other reason, he said.

"There are many problems facing us upon the best solution of which depends the future character of American life and thought. Chief among them is the problem of family life. It seems to me we have gone too far in the assertion of individual legal right. Individually it is good and its development within proper bounds a necessity for our national greatness. But pushed to an exaggerated degree, it may jeopardize the common good and the national strength a very real menace to it.

"The strength of the nation depends in its ultimate analysis upon the integrity of the family.

Divorce Laws Lax

"The foundation of family life is the marriage bond, and the security of that sacred tie is one of the best guarantees for the permanence and unity of family life. It seems to be now outside the range of controversy that one of the most fruitful sources of family disruption among us are the numerous divorce laws which have been put upon the statute books allowing easy evasion of the obligations springing from the most sacred earthly relation which bind a man and woman together.

"The increase in the number of divorces in the United States during the past few years is simply appalling, and the direct result of the laxity of the legal license to sever the marriage bond. For inadequate causes has become the gradual tendency among large bodies of the population to regard lightly and frivolously the most sacred of earthly relations and the genuine and natural foundation of family life.

"Thinking men and women all over the country are beginning to see the dire effects of this ill-advised marriage legislation, and the moral havoc which it has produced. They are beginning to appreciate, too, the wisdom of the Catholic church in standing by the sacramental character of marriage, in defending against every attack the moral fiber of the people, and in maintaining the foundation of family life, in weakening the moral resources of the nation.

"The community has the power to lessen this evil. Laws making divorce easy can never remain upon the statute books against the will of the people. More stringent divorce laws should speedily diminish the number of family disruptions, for when men and women realize that the marriage contract cannot be easily broken they are more inclined to compose their differences and to bear each other's burdens.

"The sooner a crusade in favor of family unity based upon the enduring character of the marriage bond is started the better safeguarded will be the family and the moral strength of the nation. The work of alleviating human suffering will be lessened, and the whole force of charity may be turned into its legitimate channels.

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM FACES GRAVE CRISIS

BRUSSELS, Nov. 10.—King Albert of Belgium is facing a serious problem. When he attempted to open parliament a few days ago he was surrounded by crowds in the street, who hurled petitions at his carriage and followed him into the parliament hall, demanding that he give the people universal suffrage. The king has promised to meet a delegation of citizens during the coming week and hear their demands. Many threats are openly made in the streets of Brussels against the king unless he grants the demands of the people.

against 322 million in the same months of last year, the growth is by no means as large as that in exports of manufactures. On the import side, both manufacturers' materials and finished manufactures show marked gains for the nine months' period, but a decline of about six million in crude material in September, 1910, compared with September, 1909. Crude materials for use in manufacturing show a total of 41 million dollars in the nine months ending with September, 1910, against 37 million in the same months of last year; manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 214 million dollars, against 183 million in the same months of last year; and manufactures ready for consumption, 277 million in the nine months ending with September, 1910, against 248 million in the same months of last year.

KILLED HIMSELF

Sent Bullet Through His Heart

WINCHENDON, Nov. 10.—"Allow me to write you a word to tell you that I am to die in a few moments for you. I have lost my head. Adieu."

Thus read a note which was found beside the body of Christopher Blaire, who shot himself through the heart yesterday. The note was addressed to Miss Nellie Landry, Thorndike, Mass. Two other notes, written in French like the first, were found addressed to brothers living in Canada and informing them of the writer's intention to take his own life.

was stricken a few days ago with throat trouble, and she entirely lost her voice. She was informed at first that she would never be able to speak above a whisper again. It was later announced that an operation might relieve the condition, but now the doctors fail to agree as to whether an operation will not so weaken the actress that her life would be in danger.

LARCENY CHARGE

SOMERVILLE YOUTH ARRESTED FOR SECOND TIME. BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Everett Anderson, 17 years old, living at 55 Willow avenue, West Somerville, who was arrested at a Boston theatre Tuesday evening on the charge of larceny from a Cambridge residence, was arrested by Somerville officers at the Cambridge jail office yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with larceny in Somerville.

He was being bailed on the Cambridge charge when the arrest was made by the Somerville officers. Additional bail was furnished.

Anderson is alleged to have delivered a fake telephone message last Wednesday at the home of I. G. Felt, 17 Madison street, Somerville, and while Mrs. Felt was reading it Anderson is charged with making a hasty exit from the house with a pocketbook containing a small sum of money.

Three other Somerville residents charge a man called last week with fake telephone messages.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

WAS FAVORED BY THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 10.—The most interesting result of the election in Washington is the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the state constitution. The amendment will become law as soon as the governor proclaims its ratification.

Every county thus far reported gave a majority for the amendment.

As far as known, only one county in the state went democratic in the congressional election. The plurality of the republican candidate for supreme judge is estimated at 40,000 as against 47,371 for Taft in 1908.

The socialist vote was probably about 4000.

The local option election gave notable victories to the "dry."

ONE MAN MISSING WANTS $50,000

40,000 Barrels of Kerosene Oil Exploded

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Forty thousand barrels of kerosene oil in a tank of the Tide Water Oil company at Bayonne, N. J., went up with such a roar early last night that the countryside trembled for miles around. One man, working near the tank, is missing and is believed to have perished. Five others were seriously bruised and burned. The fire, confined by hard work to the one tank, promised to burn all night, illuminating the harbor like a giant torch.

The explosion crashed in one side of the company's office building, a three story brick structure and the flames soon destroyed it and contents. The total loss will exceed $75,000.

From the Fitches, defendants in the suit, it was learned that the son went away more than a year ago, that he was traveling for his health, and that his present whereabouts is unknown to his parents. Mr. Fitch said:

"My son was married to this woman, who is now suing me, about ten years ago, and at that time her name was Mrs. Heald.

"My wife and I have never tried to exert any influence over my son in connection with his family affairs; we have always felt that he was capable of managing those himself. He knew they had grievances, however, and, as this is the third time he has separated himself from his wife and he has now been gone for 17 months, I'm inclined to think he does not intend returning to her.

Weak Over-worked Women

Who are broken down and made invalids by the drudgery of never ending household cares and duties, or by over-frequent bearing and nursing of children, and many other cares, burdens and strains which the weaker sex have to bear, are deserving of profound sympathy. But while sympathy is commendable what these unfortunate women most need is a good, honest, square-deal Restorative Tonic and Strength-giving Nerve and Regulator—one compounded and carefully adapted to act in harmony with woman's peculiar, delicate, ever sensitive organization.

Who so well fitted to select, carefully proportion the ingredients and compound a remedy for the cure of these distressing and often pain-wracking weaknesses and derangements, as the carefully and thoroughly educated and regularly graduated physician who has had a long and successful experience in treating just this class of cases.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

THIS MEDICINE IS

THE ONE REMEDY Now, and for over 40 years, sold by druggists for Woman's Peculiar Weaknesses, and Distressing Affections, gotten up by one having all of the above qualifications.

THE ONE REMEDY which absolutely contains neither alcohol (which to most Women is rank poison) nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY which is so perfect in its composition and so good in its curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient, as they do, on its outside wrapper, verifying the same under solemn oath.

In all the above most important particulars, the "Favorite Prescription" stands absolutely alone—in a class all by itself—as woman's most reliable and trust-worthy remedy in time of sickness and distress. It is a pure glyceric extract made from American curative roots, found by long time experience most valuable in curing woman's weaknesses and derangements. The leaders in all schools of medical practice have endorsed each of its ingredients as of the best known remedies for the complicated affections for which it is recommended. These professional endorsements should count for far more than any number of lay testimonials. A booklet full of them sent free on receipt of name and address.

TO SUCCEED LODGE

Democrats are Talking of Uniting on a Candidate

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Senator Lodge's candidacy for re-election loomed up as the chief issue in the political situation yesterday. In certain republican quarters the senator is being blamed for the defeat of Gov. Draper, and some who think that way are interesting themselves actively in securing a strong republican to make the fight against him.

Former Govs. Guild and Bates and Speaker Walker were mentioned as desirable candidates, but they did not encourage the suggestion. Mayor Fitzgerald issued a statement intimating that the democratic members of the legislature would support either Guild or Bates as successor to the senator.

James H. Vahey, whose recent personal sacrifice in the interest of party success has made him stronger than ever among the rank and file of the democracy, is being urged to enter the contest. At least half the democratic membership of the newly elected legislature are personal friends for whom he spoke on the stump.

Other democrats mentioned are Charles S. Hamilton and Col. William A. Gaston. It is believed that Col. Gaston would have the support of the mayor. In republican circles it was suggested that perhaps Mr. Fitzgerald's purpose in advising Guild or Bates to enter the fight was to divide the republican forces and so make it easier for a democrat to win.

As a result of the democratic landslide in the state election, it is asserted by some republicans and by the democratic leaders generally that Mr. Lodge can be defeated.

Complexion of the Legislature
The complexion of the legislature on the basis of present returns is: Senate, republicans, 25; democrats, 15; house, republicans, 128; democrats, 111, socialist, 1. This would give the republicans a majority of 77 on joint ballot.

It is evident from this that Senator Lodge could not be defeated on a straight party vote, but there are a few members of the legislature who are known to favor Ames as against Lodge, and there are quite a number who have refused to declare themselves one way or the other.

It is pointed out by the senator's opponents that a coalition of 11 republicans with the democrats, assuming the democrats held together, would be sufficient to defeat him. The only trouble appears to be in finding 11 republican members who would vote for a democratic senator, or in finding a strong republican who is willing to be a candidate.

Chairman Macleod of the democratic state committee said yesterday that he thought the chances of electing a democrat to succeed Senator Lodge were almost even, and that the chances of electing another republican than Senator Lodge were more than even. He intimated that he would favor such a plan.

Those who are planning to defeat Senator Lodge claim two anti-Lodge republicans in the senate—Arthur L. Nason of Haverhill and Joseph H. Hubbard of Lowell. They assert, further, that there will be 15 anti-Lodge republicans in the house. On this basis they figure the anti-Lodge strength on joint ballot at 142, and the straight republican strength at 139, as follows: Senate—Straight republicans, 22; anti-Lodge republicans, 2; democrats, 14; in doubt, 1.

House—Straight republicans, 109; anti-Lodge republicans, 15; democrats, 110; socialist, 1; in doubt, 6.
A majority of the whole number of votes cast is all that is needed to elect.

man Foss takes the oath of office as governor next January will be resign as congressman from the 14th district? His term of congressman will not expire until noon March 4 next. By that time he will have served as governor of Massachusetts three months. Meanwhile the 15th district will be unrepresented at Washington.

Some of the practical politicians in the district would not be averse to seeing another special election down on the Cape to fill out the governor-elect's congressional term.

In the event of another special congressional election it would mean that within 10 months the district would have a record of having had three congressional elections.

The Police Commissionership

Some republicans expressed great fear yesterday that Mr. Foss would appoint Surveyor Jeremiah McCarthy to succeed Stephen O'Meara when the latter's term of office expires next year and the suggestion was made that the best way to beat the governor-elect and the republican surveyor would be for Commissioner O'Meara to resign before Gov. Draper's term expires and have the governor reappoint the present commissioner's successor.

Under the law, it is claimed that "any vacancy occurring in the office shall be filled by the governor by an appointment for a term of five years." In this way, it is pointed out that Gov. Draper would be able to prevent Gov. Foss from naming a police commissioner who would be accessible to the Boston democratic leaders. It is not thought likely, however, that the governor will adopt the suggestion.

It was also suggested that by following this course the governor might with propriety name his secretary, William A. Murphy, for the place.

AEROPLANE FOR ARMY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Congress will be asked by Secretary of War Dickinson to buy five or ten aeroplanes for the army. General Allen, chief signal officer of the army, has recommended twenty aeroplanes for the army's use. Mr. Dickinson is not convinced that the government needs that many next year. He is convinced, however, that the United States must equip itself with air craft if it is to keep pace with the other powers.

BILLERICA

The annual fair and sale under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the town hall. The festivities opened at 3.30 o'clock and supper was served at 7.15 o'clock in the banquet hall.

The interior of the hall was prettily decorated and there were sales tables and booths abundantly decorated and well patronized. The tables and those who presided over them were as follows: Fruit and preserve table, Mrs. J. F. Bruce chairman, Mrs. Franklin Jaquith; tea and punch table, Mrs. Albert H. Richardson; grab table, Mrs. Harry King chairman, Mrs. Augustus P. M. H. A. Spiller; handkerchief table, Mrs. M. A. Buck chairman, Mrs. Henry D. Livingston; apron table, Mrs. Frank Holden chairman, Mrs. John Bull, Mrs. Edward King; fancy table, Mrs. Edward F. Dickinson, chairman, Mrs. J. B. Tyler; candy table, Mrs. J. B. Robinson chairman, Mrs. Frank Day, Miss Marion Williams.

ECKERT WILL YOUNGER SON WANTS A SHARE OF $3,000,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Charges that "fraud and undue influence" induced Gen. Thomas T. Eckert, former head of the Western Union Telegraph company, to bequeath the bulk of his $3,000,000 estate to his elder son, Thomas T. Eckert, Jr., are made by James C.

McKert, the younger son, in a statement begun yesterday to set aside the will. It is also alleged that General Eckert was of unsound mind when he drew up the document and that James C. Eckert, under the will, is to receive $50,000 outright and a life interest in an additional $100,000. In filing the contest he places this in jeopardy, for the will provides that any beneficiary who takes such action is to forfeit his interest.

With the exception of a few minor bequests to relatives, the balance of the estate, including the country home at Elberon, N. J., is given to Thomas T. Eckert, Jr.

FOOTBALL NEWS

Everybody isn't jumping on Yale while she's down. There is no sarcasm in the words of Edward N. Robinson, the "Brown" coach. He also declines to make Tom Shevlin eat crow for his bold prophecy of victory over Brown, Princeton and Harvard. Good old Shevlin! When he says or does anything he does it with all his heart and sticks to his guns in time of adversity. Mr. Robinson does not regard defeat for Yale at the hands of Harvard a foregone conclusion, and there are Harvard experts quite as conservative, but the truth is that with a great majority of the disinterested who view the outlook calmly and are not without some knowledge of football the belief is that it's all over but the shouting. Says Mr. Robinson:

"We at Brown prefer to draw out deductions from the strength of the Brown team rather than the weakness of Yale. The team that faced Yale Saturday was at least 50 per cent stronger in the matter of physical condition and 100 per cent more advanced in team play than in the game with Harvard, when Brown had hardly recovered from a disastrous defeat by Pennsylvania the Saturday before."

"It is true that Yale did not look like the teams we have been accustomed to meet on the Yale field and there was something lacking either in the men or the system of play; but there are so many chances under the present rules for one or two alert men on a team to turn defeat into victory that it is well to be conservative."

"In my mind Yale is making a mistake in her system of defence, but if any team expects to rush the Bils by line plunging down to their goal line for three or four touchdowns somebody is liable to get fooled."

Brown found it easier to gain through Harvard's line than Yale's and the addition of one or two ends of the Kilpatrick type might make a lot of difference in a 30 to 0 score.

"Comparing the two teams as individuals puts Yale at a decided disadvantage. The Harvard players have made their reputations yet it takes a Harvard-Yale game to afford opportunity and Yale may take advantage of it."

"Kilpatrick's reputation is too well established to require discussion. Yale's forward pass, with Kilpatrick as the receiver, is one of the hardest plays to stop that has been shown this fall and one or two plays of this type may mean victory."

Outside of Morris at centre, man for man, excepting of course left end, Harvard seems to outclass Yale. In the guard and tackle positions it would be hard to find four men better equipped than those of the Harvard team, but if the Harvard guards play the same system of defence as shown against Brown, Yale ought to make many valuable yards between them. In the backfield Yale is lighter than for years, and after we have so long been accustomed to seeing players with the weight and physique of a Coy. filling backfield positions, an infant of 150 pounds like Howe at fullback is a novelty. Harvard has a well balanced backfield, the men having both weight and speed, while Capt. Daly is the only Yale back capable of making an impression on a good line.

What would happen if Yale should score in the first part of the game the way Cornell did in the last period? Would the team come back?

Brown certainly had Yale up in the air Saturday, and they acted as though all coaching, and even rudiments, were forgotten. Brown gave them a worse exhibition against Penn. Yet in a week played Harvard on almost even terms, and in three weeks beat Yale by a score to be remembered.

A few sensible changes will make a lot of difference to Yale, and there are two weeks to make them. She has not been weak in the past and may profit for the future.

Princeton and the Navy now stand alone among eastern teams with an unsullied defence. In Princeton's case this is particularly indicative of strength on the defence, because such teams as Lafayette, the Indians and Dartmouth have tried in vain to get across the Tiger line. This year keeping a clean slate argues extreme watchfulness in guarding against the various little slips which are so apt to give an opponent an opening. These slips may come through carelessness, or through an individual's blunder, and when there haven't been any that allowed a score there must be an eleven of constantly alert individuals. Every move of the Princeton team thus far has indicated that it is careful and quick to get, without relaxation of effort or vigilance.

The Indians have won over 200 in total points. They have averaged 21 points a game and that in spite of being shut out twice. Pennsylvania is a big point scorer considering the quality of her opponents. The Pittsburgh eleven has a notable record and seems to be one of the best. The point total follows:

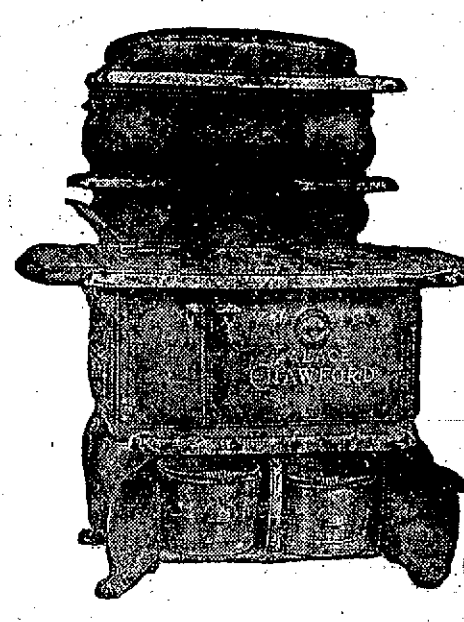

Harvard, 137-5, seven games; Yale, 88-36, eight games; Princeton, 93-0, seven games; Pennsylvania, 172-23, nine games; Cornell, 141-22, six games; Army, 86-6, five games; Navy, 81-0, six games; Dartmouth, 111-9, six games; Brown, 84-41, seven games; Lafayette, 80-21, seven games; Syracuse, 49-34, six games; Carlisle, 219-46, ten games; Pennsylvania State, 119-10, four games; Lehigh, 18-78, six games; N. Y. U., 25-29, four games; Amherst, 46-35, seven games; Wesleyan, 42-50, seven games; Williams, 22-63, six games; Georgetown, 140-17, six games; Pittsburg, 131-0, five games; Vanderbilt, 85-2, five games; Virginia, 101-22, five games; Holy Cross, 40-34, five games; Bowdoin, 69-39, seven games; Stevens, 20-44, six games; Rutgers, 29-21, four games; Tufts, 62-92, seven games; Swarthmore, 95-41, six games; Trinity, 73-3, five games; Colgate, 57-47, five games; Minnesota, 134-0, four games; Michigan, 23-9, four games; Antwerp, 111-6, nine games; Exeter, 60-31, ten games.

The nearest approach to a football score card seen is the idea of a Boston man, Walter Barnes. It contains parallel columns, at the tops of which are such headings as "Whose ball," "play," "gain," "loss," "tackled by," "ball on" and "remarks." In the last margin of which can be put the nature of the play. Each play can be recorded across the page. To make this scheme practicable one must be able to know each player, and the general run of football spectators couldn't do that unless the players were numbered, which would be a very simple thing to do.

The point is that if the public is to acquire a knowledge of football and the players commensurate with baseball it must have some means of knowing the players individually and what they are doing. Practice in scoring would go a long way toward bettering that knowledge. It would familiarize the spectator with what is going on. It would result in grasping details and thus having a better understanding of the game in general. A more intimate knowledge of football is needed to make it understood and enjoyed as a sport and not alone as a spectacle with hurrah atmosphere and so judged about with secret practice and no knowledge of what it is save on the field once a week that outside of college affiliations there is no chance to work up personal interest in the game or the players. Cut out the mystery and pedestal hero business and let the public in on the game as a game.

DIAMOND NOTES

D. A. Fletcher, who says he is organizing a new major baseball league, announced in Toledo yesterday that he would arrive in New York not later than Saturday and would open headquarters. Fletcher insists that he will have plenty of money behind him, although he admits that he hasn't any of his own. But that does not matter, he declares, because he has the signatures of ninety-two players, including some of those who recently backed out of the proposed all star tour which was projected by him.

Fletcher in an interview accuses the National commission of intimidating these players by threatening to blacklist them if they lived up to their agreement to take part in the tour.

"I have talked to some of the players who sent back their checks," says Fletcher, "and they tell me that the commission virtually threatened to drive them out of baseball if they had anything to do with me. I have letters from others, including Ty Cobb, and they, too, are very bitter against the commission. They say that they know all the players will jump at a chance to go with my new league."

"I haven't given out the names of the players who have signed optional agreements with me, and I haven't disclosed the identity of men in various cities who have promised to finance the clubs, because the moment I make public such details the big league clubs will have some ammunition. But just as soon as I have clinched certain matters I'll make no secret of my plans."

"I will be in New York" before the end of the week, not later than Saturday, and I shall establish permanent headquarters there. There'll be a club planted somewhere in New York city, but I am not ready to say just where. We are going to show that the National commission and the two big leagues do not own baseball and that we are capable of furnishing plenty of healthy competition."

National commission agents who have been trailing Fletcher for several months declare that he is bluffing. They admit that he has secured options on the services of numerous ball players to whom he has promised to pay large sums of money on February 10, 1911, but they are positive that Fletcher has no financial backing to amount to anything, although he has tried to interest many persons with money. Jack Gleason, the fight promoter, who says that he has secured options on the services of numerous ball players to whom he has promised to pay large sums of money on February 10, 1911, but they are positive that Fletcher has no financial backing to amount to anything, although he has tried to interest many persons with money. It is persistently rumored that, irrespective of Fletcher, the major league ball players are forming a protective association to embrace every organized league in this country. One of the prim movers is said to be Andrew J. Coker, the former Chicago pitcher, who was recently declared ineligible by the commission in spite of the fact that he had purchased his release from the Montreal club.

Presidents Fogel and Herrmann of the Philadelphia and Cincinnati clubs will be in New York in a day or two to patch up their quarrel over the big deal for players which Fogel has temporarily blocked. President Thomas J. Lynch has invited them to meet at the National league headquarters in the St. James building. Fogel is said to have paid some attention to the expert opinion of Charles W. Murphy of the Cubs to the effect that Philadelphia will have all the better of the exchange of players with the Cincinnati club. Meanwhile Third Baseman Lobert of the Cincinnati has notified Herrmann that he will not go to Philadelphia. Does this mean that Lobert will play third base for the Cubs next year?

FOUGHT A DRAW
ATTELL AND MORAN IN FAST BOUT

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Abbe Attell and Owen Moran fought six fast rounds to a draw last night before the National Athletic club. Attell kept after his English opponent from the sound of the bell, but Moran was just as anxious to mix it as Attell was, and at the end of the fight there was little to choose between the two fighters.

LEADING PLAYERS OF PRINCETON AND YALE FOOTBALL TEAMS TO MEET IN ANNUAL GAME

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 10.—The football eleven of Yale and Princeton are ready for their annual clash on the gridiron, to be played this year on University field here Nov. 12. To the Tiger men the game with Yale is the all important event of the year. For the past few weeks the coaches have been developing plays to beat the New Haven Bulldogs. Judging by the records of the two teams since the start of the 1910 football campaign, it looks as if the Tigers will defeat Yale. The new rule, which forbids Princeton, while Yale, per se, cannot in the slashing, pushing, pulling style, has had a hard time adapting herself to the new code. The all-together-help-one-another spirit that always has been the keynote of Yale teams is practically useless under the new rules. The Tigers were never a team to make much of the line plunging attack. In the old days, when brilliant ends and speedy backs were of the greatest service, Princeton was most of her games by such men. The present rules require much of the same sort of offense, and Coach Power thinks he has a back field that can play this game to the limit. The Princeton line from end to end is not as heavy as most Princeton lines have been in previous years. In fact, it has been outwitted in at least two of the season's preliminary games. It is the idea of Coach Roper that if his line can hold its own with opponents his back field can do the rest. In all the games Yale has played this fall her defense and offense have been ragged and uncertain. Out of thirty-four games with Yale, Princeton has won eight. The probable lineup of the two eleven is as follows: Yale—Left end, Reilly; left tackle, Skilly; left guard, Paul; centre, Morris; right guard, Fuller; right tackle, Savage; right end, Brooks; quarterback, Strout; left halfback, Field; right halfback, Daly; fullback, Howe. Princeton—Right end, Dunlap; right tackle, Bliss; right guard, McCormick; centre, Blunthenthal; left guard, Wilson; left tackle, McGregory; left end, BreDEMUS; quarterback, Ballou; right halfback, Sparks; left halfback, Pondleton; fullback, Hart, captain.

THE DEMOCRATS

Will Control Next House of Con- gress By Safe Majority

The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed yesterday by a general survey of the field which disclosed with greater detail and precision just what results were accomplished.
Late calculations on the national house of representatives, based on complete but official returns, show that the democrats will have a safe working majority of thirty.
The outcome of the United States senate is now definitely settled. The republicans are assured of 16 new senators which with thirty-four hold-over senators gives them a total of fifty. The democrats are assured of fifteen new senators which with 25 hold-overs gives them a total of forty.

Two senatorships are in doubt, namely:
the succession of the late Mr. Dilliver in Iowa and of Mr. Carter in Montana, where there are prospects of a tie.
The sixteen republican senators considered assured are from California, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota, (2) Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The fifteen democratic senators considered assured are from Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

A summary of the contest for governorship show the following democratic governors elected, with the approximate pluralities:

New York, Dix	66,000
New Jersey, Wilson	30,000
Connecticut, Baldwin	3,500
Massachusetts, Ross	33,000
Ohio, Harmon	60,000
Oklahoma, Cruce	60,000
Oregon, West	60,000
Wyoming, Carey	50,000
Alabama, O'Neil	50,000
South Carolina, Blease	60,000
Texas, Colquitt	3,000
North Dakota, Burke	3,000

The republican governors elected, with approximate pluralities are:

Pennsylvania, Tener	20,000
New Hampshire, Bass	6,000
Rhode Island, Pothier	300
Iowa, Carroll	10,000
Kansas, Stubbs	5,000
Michigan, Osborn	40,000
Minnesota, Elmerhart	50,000
Nebraska, Aldrich	5,000
South Dakota, Vasey	12,000
Wisconsin, McGovern	25,000
California, Johnson	25,000
Nevada, Oddie	12,000
Tennessee, Hooper	12,000

The governorships in two states are not yet reported as being beyond doubt, namely Colorado and Idaho.

According to the latest figures the democrats will have a majority on joint ballot of 22. John W. Kern was favored last spring by the democrats for United States senator and will in all probability become the colleague of Senator Shively, also a democrat.

It is conceded last night that the democratic state ticket was elected by a plurality of about 15,000.
Senator Beveridge admitted that the tide was against him. He wrote the following statement:
"Fortunes of war, it is all right;
twelve years of hard work; clean record; I am content."
For the first time in 18 years the democrats control every branch of the state government, the two United States senatorships and all but one congressional district.

SEC. DICKINSON

TO MAKE A WRITTEN REPORT TO PRESIDENT TAFT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Secretary of War Dickinson saw President Taft yesterday for the first time since his return from his trip around the world.
He had little opportunity to tell the president about his trip, however, as the latter was preparing to depart for Panama and had a special cabinet meeting on his hands. He promised to prepare a written report which he will have ready by the time Mr. Taft gets back from the isthmus.

In spite of the fact that it was not a particularly good time for the only democrat in Mr. Taft's official family to enter into the cabinet councils after several months' absence, Mr. Dickinson was there and listened to the political discussion. He took little part himself, however. As he afterwards expressed it, he had been away from the country for so long that he was not familiar with the political situation.

Mr. Dickinson submitted to the president a number of important questions pending before the war department.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The newly organized Ivy Lodge, Daughters of St. George, was formally installed last evening, the large room in which the installation took place,

being beautifully decorated.
This lodge was instituted by the worthy grand president, Slater B.
Jones of Waltham and the worthy grand district deputy, E. Adamson of Lawrence, who was assisted by the following suite: Grand conductor, P.
G. P. Amie J. Hollins of Lawrence; grand treasurer, P. G. P. Alice Whitehead of North Chelmsford; grand secretary, E. Berry of Lawrence; recording secretary, P. P. James Ball of Ledy Washington lodge, Lawrence; vice president, P. P. Hannah; Mosely of Ledy Washington lodge, Lawrence; chaplain, P. P. Emma Ellis of Ledy Washington lodge, Lawrence.

The installation ceremony was excellently performed and praise must be given the district officers for the able manner in which they carried out their work. The following ladies were installed as officers of Ivy lodge 35,
I. O. D. St. George; past president,
Mrs. N. Metcalf; president, Mrs. E.
Kilbert; vice president, Mrs. M. A.
Hoyle; recording secretary, Miss H.
Waterhouse; financial secretary, Miss

A. Ballinger; treasurer, Mrs. A. Sellers; chaplain, Mrs. R. Hue; first conductor, Mrs. H. Hadley; second conductor,
Miss E. Ballinger; inside guard, Mrs.
M. Senior; outside guard, Mrs. J.
Harrison; trustees, Mrs. M. Cavithra,
Mrs. J. Armitage, Miss J. Ingham.

After the installation the visiting officers and members sat down to a supper and at 10:30 p. m. the affair came to a close.

Visitors were present from Lowell, Lawrence, Waltham and other surrounding towns.

The lodge will meet every second and fourth Tuesday in the month at the lodge room over the post office.

CHELMSFORD

The "Village Blackbirds" gave a most entertaining minstrel show at the town hall last evening under the direction of Mrs. John B. Emerson, lecturer of the grange.

Mrs. E. T. Adams, in white, made a most excellent interlocutor and the ends, Mrs. J. P. Parker and Mrs. Frank Hadley with the tambos and Mrs. I.
H. Knight and Mrs. Ezra E. Mansur with the bunnies were the right ones in the right places. The ends wore white with red bows and ties and red bands on the skirts. The circle was in white, trimmed with yellow. Those in the circle were: Mrs. Hiram Brown, Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Mrs. Harriet
Shirley, Miss Hester Baker, Miss Rose Paignon, Miss Elizabeth Cushing, Mrs. C. V. Hazeltine, Miss Abbie
Ford, Miss Margaret Sloan, Miss Florence Lupien, Miss Alice Kennedy, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. D. B. George.

An excellent program was presented.
Miss Harriet Mansur served as a very capable accompanist. Upon conclusion of the program general dancing with music by Miss Mansur's four piece orchestra was enjoyed until midnight.

Mrs. J. B. Emerson was floor director, assisted by Miss Rachel Marshall, Miss Edna Spaulding, Miss Maude Hamilton and Miss Hazel Shirley.

Bay State Dye Works

There is such a thing as dying and also such a thing as lying. When a person tells you that one dye house is just as good as another, that is lying.
There is just as much difference in work done at the Bay State Dye Works as you can imagine. When you have your work done here you can feel sure that you have gone to the best place and will get the best results.
That is the truth and we will prove it if you only give us a trial order. Bring in your winter wearing apparel and we will get it when you need it at Low-

SEN. BEVERIDGE

Will Be Succeeded By
J. W. Kern

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10.— Senator A. J. Beveridge's hopes for another term at Washington went glimmering yesterday when late returns showed conclusively that the democrats Tuesday elected a majority of the members of the Indiana assembly, which will meet next January to choose Mr. Beveridge's successor.
According to the latest figures the democrats will have a majority on joint ballot of 22. John W. Kern
was favored last spring by the democrats for United States senator and
will in all probability become the col-

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun
for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

Joseph L. Marin's plurality in Lowell came next to that of Foss.

The democratic wards of Lowell have a big responsibility to shoulder in the defeat of Col. Carmichael. The charge is laid at their door, and no denial seems possible.

LODGE'S CANDIDACY AFFECTED

The election of Foss is a blow to Senator Lodge, but yet the republican majority in the legislature is practically unshaken. That majority can elect Lodge or somebody else, and it is not improbable that the senator will be chosen for the fourth time in spite of all opposition. The only chance of beating him is to get a candidate who will draw the votes of both parties.

ROOSEVELT DISCREDITED ABROAD

Col. Roosevelt has fallen from his high estate in the eyes of the European courts in which he was lionized as the foremost American citizen on his way home from Africa. Perhaps the result of Tuesday's election will convince him that his efforts to save the nation and guide the people are not appreciated. The nation does not care to be saved in the manner he proposes.His new nationalism has been shelved and as a presidential possibility he will have to keep it company. His record as a huntsman, however, stands unimpeached.

THE PANAMA CANAL

It seems that foreign nations are objecting to the fortification of the Panama Canal by the United States. The canal is being built and paid for by the United States, and it is in all respects a United States enterprise.
If it is to be used in time of war by other nations those who join in the use of it should pay their share of the cost of building it. If England and Japan want to use the canal for sending their ships through in case of war, they should be required to pay part of the expense of the undertaking.The canal is intended for the advancement of commerce by the United States and all the vessels using it must pay toll for passage through this waterway. There must be some income from the use of the canal, and it is reasonable to assume that it will not be as free to foreign nations as to the ships of the United States even in time of peace.

THE HAVERHILL CHARTER

It is to be regretted that City Solicitor Nichols of Haverhill did not address a great mass meeting on the subject of charter reform instead of about 100 citizens invited to the board of trade rooms. His elucidation of the subject was refreshing. He convinced his hearers that the Haverhill charter provides an ideal method of conducting the city's business and one which even in a short time has brought about a wonderful improvement in the financial standing of the city as well as in the manner in which street and other department work was done.The Haverhill charter has passed beyond the experimental stage, having been adopted by over a score of cities in the same or a slightly modified form and all have practically the same story to tell as the city of Haverhill. That should be sufficiently convincing to the citizens of Lowell.

FALL RIVER'S HIGH DEATH RATE

The city of Fall River is credited by the census bureau of the United States with having the largest death rate of any city in the country except
New Orleans. The death rate of Fall River as calculated by the census bureau is 19.1 and that of New Orleans 20.2. This is a rather serious matter for the city of Fall River. The excessive mortality, it is claimed, is largely due to the great number of deaths of infants and children during the early years of life. The proportion of deaths of infants under one year to the total deaths for Fall River is 29 per cent., and the proportion under five years of age is 50 per cent.This state of affairs calls for immediate action on the part of the city council of Fall River. We have no doubt whatever that the infant mortality can be reduced by a well directed war against tuberculosis. The death rate of Lowell computed on the old population is 19.55 for 1909, but computed on the new population it is 17.74.

THE VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE

The lessons of Tuesday's election indicate that the great American people are not so easily bamboozled after all. They may suffer long and patiently under imposition but eventually in spite of party allegiance or the persuasion of so-called party leaders, they will rise in their might and down shams and humbugs.In general, in one way or another, the verdict of the people was rendered against the republican tariff and the high cost of living.Unfortunately the defeat of republican candidates will not bring immediate relief, but the fact that the national house of representatives in the next congress will be democratic will lead up to legislation on the tariff that will bring about the desired change. The tariff must be revised downward and the cost of living will then come down despite the fact that Senator Lodge says the tariff has nothing to do with the cost of living.In regard to high prices in this country, it must be admitted that they are fictitious and made so by the absence of competition due to the operation of trusts and the excessive tariff which shelters the trusts. Simply to restore competition that would permit the natural laws of supply and demand to operate would alone reduce the high cost of living to normal conditions.

HEARD REPORTS

Board of Trade Directors Met YesterdayThe directors of the board of trade held a regular meeting in the new rooms of the organization yesterday.
Many reports were heard, including a hopeful report of progress from the committee on new industries.The committee on lay-out of streets reported plans whereby the laying out
of new streets shall be subject to some expert supervision.The matter of allowing certain organizations to use the rooms was left to the president and secretary.The executive committee was asked to take charge of the securing of speakers at the next banquet.An innovation in these meetings was the reading by Secretary Murphy, a detailed report of his activities for the past month. The report showed how many and varied objects the board has under consideration at this time.The matter of charter revision attracted considerable attention at the meeting, reports on the progress thus far being given and on the plans for further work.New members elected were: Frederick Bailey, John M. Farrell, E. V. Ed-
gell, Charles Sharf, Dr. A. E. Gillard,
Charles Parkhurst, James J. Gray, Arthur Bartlett, Thomas A. Golden, Otis
Butler, Charles L. Gauthier.The secretary reported that arrangements had been made with the railroad to have two sections of the New York sleeper reserved for sale to Lowell patrons.

DR. HARMON

CHELMSFORD RESIDENT DIED
IN ARIZONAA telegram was received at Chelmsford yesterday telling of the death at Phoenix, Arizona, of Dr. Arthur A.
Harmon, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas A. Harmon of Bridge street.
Although making his home in the west
for the benefit of his health, no information of any change was given in a letter received but a few days ago.
Besides his parents, he leaves one brother, Harry W. Harmon of Chelmsford.Dr. Harmon graduated from the Chelmsford high school in 1895, and the following year entered the Massachusetts Agricultural college, from which he was graduated in 1900. He then took up studies at the University of Pennsylvania, from which he graduated with the degree of V. S. in 1902.
After working for a time for the state sanitary board at Pennsylvania, he then entered the service of the United States government at Washington, under the bureau of animal industry.
An attack of pneumonia developed into lung trouble, and in the interest of his health he was transferred to Phoenix,
Arizona, where he continued his work
under the bureau of animal industry.
He had been located there for the past five years and held the position of veterinary inspector.No further particulars of his death
have been received. Arrangements have been made for returning the body to Chelmsford and announcement of the funeral will be made later.

DR. T. HANRAHAN

ENTERTAINED BY FOURTH DE-
GREE, K. OF C.The members of Lowell council, K.
of C. of the fourth degree, tendered a dinner at the Washington club last evening to Dr. Timothy Hanrahan of Boston, master of the fourth degree.
There were about 30 guests present.At the conclusion of dinner there was an informal discussion. Dr. Thos.
P. Carroll of this city presided, and
Dr. Hanrahan spoke at considerable length to the guests. Among the visitors were Sir Knight William F. Sullivan of Nashua, James Egan of Boston and John J. Hill of Woburn.

HOW TO WASH THE HAIR

Avoid using a soap or shampoo containing an excess of alkali. Always select a shampoo made of fine Soap,
Glycerin, Salicylic Acid, White of Eggs
and Coconut Oil. Every one of these things is helpful to the hair and scalp.
Birt's Head Wash is made of these ingredients, and it is pure and neutral,
containing no free alkali whatever.
It stops the loss of hair, dandruff
disappears and itching ceases. It opens up the pores and removes all

Defeated St. Mark's in the Annual Game

GROTON, Nov. 10.—Groton school defeated St. Mark's of Southboro, 11 to 0, in their annual game, played on the Groton campus yesterday, before one of the largest crowds that ever watched the teams battle. Groton's alacrity in taking advantage of the mistakes made by the Southboro team enabled the home team to score both touchdowns.

Prior to the game Groton was a slight favorite. It did not actually outplay St. Mark's, and the Southboro boys held it for several times. Groton won the game because it followed the ball closely, and whenever a St. Mark's player fumbled there was a Groton boy ready to recover it.

The game really was won in the first four minutes of the opening period, after Groton had recovered the ball from St. Mark's 19-yard line on a fumbled punt.

Groton's second touchdown was made under practically the same conditions as was the first. Hancock fumbling a punt on his own 10-yard line, which was recovered by Atkinson, Groton's center.

Groton tried several forward passes, and with two exceptions they were cleverly executed. Hardwick and Frothingham showing up brilliantly in handling them. St. Mark's tried a series of forward passes in the third period, when it had the ball nearly all the time in Groton's territory.

There was a strong effort to blowing down the gridiron just as the teams came onto the field. The officials called the captains together, and St. Mark's won the toss. Capt. Bradley taking the wind. It proved beneficial, the team gaining considerable ground because of it.

While St. Mark's had the heavier line, Groton's backfield was much the heavier, and in many instances this advantage told. Groton gained the more ground, chiefly because of its punting. Hardwick punted whenever his goal line was in danger, while Cottrell did not.

Huntington Frothingham of Groton was one of the best runs of the game in the second period. He broke loose on his own 31-yard line and carried the ball to St. Mark's 20-yard line, where Coolidge made a spectacular tackle.

Coolidge, St. Mark's right end, was conspicuous in almost every play, and his splendid tackling prevented Groton backs from making several long runs. He was slightly hurt in the fourth quarter, but remained in the game. Harry Burnett, at right tackle; Howell, at left tackle; and Taylor all did some effective playing for the Southboro school.

Atkinson, the home team's center, was in about every play and twice he recovered fumbles made by St. Mark's. During the third period he intercepted a forward pass on which Coolidge would have had a clear field, had he caught it. The summary:

BOWLING NEWS
Contests on the Alleys Last Night

Last night was a big night on the alleys, the wielders of the small balls turning out in large numbers. There were several big pin contests also.

In the Catholic league the Knights of Columbus team defeated the Y. M. C. U., winning all three points. Conn of the winning aggregation was high man with singles of 113, 105 and 114 and a triple of 322.

The Wamets defeated the Primrose Five by a good margin, while the married men of Tyngsboro turned the trick on the single men of the same town. The game between the Monegas and Ledgers resulted in a victory for the former team. Two six-men teams, the Tigers and Cubs, had at it, and the Tigers won.

REGULAR MEETING

Of Grocers and Butchers Last Night

The Lowell Retail Grocers and Butchers association met last night at the Builders' Exchange in Appleton street. There was a large attendance and much business was transacted during the evening.

The meeting was presided over by Vice-President John J. McCann. An amendment to the constitution, extending duties to the treasurer and carrying with the office a salary, was favorably acted upon by the body.

Mr. George Maguire, who represented the local association at the meeting of the Food-Trade legislative committee, held recently, submitted an interesting report. The object of this committee is to secure united action on the part of the food and trade organizations to the end that hasty and unwise legislation may be prevented and that wise laws that will protect the trade and consumer may be enacted. The Lowell representatives were chosen chairman of the committee on constitution and by-laws of the new organization.

Mr. David Gerow and Mr. A. V. Gray spoke interestingly on the work of the state association. All grocers were again urged to live up to the Thursday afternoon closing rule adopted at the previous meeting.

WHIST PARTY

HELD AT ASSOCIATE HALL BY COURT ST. ANTOINE

A well attended and highly successful whist party and concert was held at the Associate Hall last night under the auspices of Court St. Antoine, Catholic Order of Foresters. The hall was taxed to its capacity but nevertheless those who attended had a good time.

Denis Descheneaux, president of the committee, opened the affair by coming down the aisle and then introduced Mr. Frank Ricard as master of ceremonies. Mayor John P. Meehan was also present and spoke in an interesting manner of the advantages of membership in such a society.

At the conclusion of the mayor's remarks, an entertainment program was carried out. The judges awarding the prizes were Mayor Meehan, J. P. Rochette, Dr. Payette, Fred Rochette, J. P. Montminy, Willis Pettier, Abraham L'Anglais and Joseph Magras, and the winners of the first prizes were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Pettier, J. P. Rochette and Mr. Joseph Magras. Aurere Beaudoin, boobies, Raoul Genest, Albert Descheneaux, Dr. A. G. Payette, and Blanche Smith.

The committee in charge of the affair was as follows: Denis Descheneaux, general manager; Alex. Morin, assistant general manager; Noe Dandane, secretary; J. H. Gregoire, treasurer; Leonie Fortin, assistant treasurer; J. E. Bellemare, Henri Achin, Jr., Willis Pettier, L. J. Cornillier, E. P. Gregoire, J. E. Sicard, Orestes Tremblay, J. P. Rochette, Charles A. Delaronde, Edward Desrochers, Alfred Ducharme, Edgar Montmarquet, Archibald Archambault, Arthur J. Perron, Eugene Poplin, Joseph Ouellette, Patrice Lacourse, J. H. Robitaille, Joseph Parent, Lucien Ducharme, Abraham L'Anglais, Frank Ricard, president of the court, ex-officio.

MURDER CHARGED

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 10.—

Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenck, wife of John O. Schenck, a millionaire pork packer of this city, was arrested and locked up last night on a warrant issued by the prosecuting attorney, charging attempted murder of her husband during his illness by administering poison in mineral waters. Mr. Schenck was taken to the North Wheeling hospital two weeks ago and since that time repeated attempts of Mrs. Schenck to have him taken back to their palatial home in Wheeling have been contested by Mr. Schenck's relatives. Mr. Schenck is in a critical condition.

The arrest was made last night following the receipt of telegrams from chemists in New York city and Baltimore, giving the analysis of the mineral water alleged to have been administered. Mr. Schenck, Mrs. Schenck is in jail and is not admitted to bail. She refused to make a statement regarding the allegations.

CITY MISSIONS
SOCIETY FORMED AT Y. M. C. A. ROOMS
A meeting to consider the matter of forming a City Missionary society was held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The meeting was called by the Florence Crittenton association. Rev. D. W. Waldron, superintendent of the City Missionary society of Boston, addressed the meeting and explained the way that the work is carried on in Boston. Rev. George C. Wright spoke for the work that he represents.

Rev. J. E. Gregg suggested a plan for the division of the city into districts, each church to be responsible for its own district. It was voted that a committee of ten or more, at the discretion of the chairman, Mr. Kennigott, be appointed to look into the matter and report at a meeting subject to the call of the chair.

EXCELSIOR BAZAAR

SECOND NIGHT HAD MANY NOVEL FEATURES

The second night of the Excelsior bazaar at the Gorham Street Methodist church was a repetition of the success of the opening night. Supper was served between 5.30 and 7.30 o'clock by the ladies of the parish. The attendance was large and the following program was enjoyed:
Piano solo, John E. Kelly; tenor solo, James McNulty; reading, Miss Mildred Tinker; contralto solo, Mrs. F. L. Roberts; reading, John J. Payne; song, Miss Tinker; baritone solo, James E. Donnelly, and finale, "America." John J. Connel, agent of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, presided during the evening.
William F. Hills, of the Traders National bank, will preside tonight, and the entertainment will be furnished under the direction of Rev. J. T. Carleton of the Centralville M. E. church.

RETAIL CLERKS

WILL HOLD CONCERT AND BALL IN NEAR FUTURE

At a meeting of the Retail Clerks association in the board of trade rooms last evening a committee of 25 was appointed to make arrangements for a concert and ball to be held in the near future.

The officers made their reports for the last quarter and all indicated a substantial gain over the last reports. The membership of the organization has increased wonderfully and the financial condition is most encouraging. A special membership committee was appointed to enroll all clerks who are not yet members. The next meeting will be held Dec. 6.

HELD DANCING PARTY

A very pretty dancing party was held at Prescott hall Tuesday night under the auspices of the members of the O'Donnell Dry Goods Employees' Mutual Benefit association. There were about 125 couples present and the evening was spent in an enjoyable manner. Mr. Henry Worth acted as general manager and Miss Helen T. Lyons was the floor director. Music for dancing was furnished by Gilmore's orchestra.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Is on His Way to Panama

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 10.—President Taft sailed today for Panama to get into "personal" touch with conditions along the big canal. Mr. Taft visited the isthmus just before his inauguration in 1909, but since various executive and engineering problems have arisen and congress must frame legislation as to rates of toll, form of government, the regulation of the sale of coal, the disposition of the Panama railroad and many other things. The president expects to make various recommendations regarding the canal at the coming short session of congress.

Mr. Taft sailed on the armored cruiser Tennessee with the cruiser Montana as convoy. Both cruisers have a speed of 22 knots and will make the trip to Colon in four days. Mr. Taft expects to be on the isthmus for four days and is due back in Charleston Nov. 22. He will stop over a few hours in Richmond on the 23rd and be back in Washington that afternoon. The president's special squadron is under the command of Rear Admiral Stanton with the Tennessee as flagship.

Before sailing the president reviewed groups of white and colored school children here. The president is making a purely business trip to Panama and accompanied only by his brother, Charles P. Taft, Secretary Norton, two aides, a physician and stenographer.

CARS HELD UP

As the Result of an Accident

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Thousands of suburbanites who depend on the cars of the Boston elevated system to reach their homes, caused housewives much uneasiness between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening, and late suppers were eaten as the result of an impairment of a portion of the company's power.

The western part of Somerville marked one limit of the area affected and Brookline and Newton the other, with Brighton and Cambridge completing the intermediate area. In West Somerville street cars just managed to get enough headway to move along at a snail's pace, taking 25 minutes to go three-quarters of a mile. The cars were left in almost complete darkness, the incandescent lamps barely glowing.

On Broadway, considerable difficulty was experienced in climbing the grade of Winter Hill, and the same situation was true on the grade of Holland street at Clarendon Hill.

Motorists often found their cars slipping down hill. Use of the brake was necessary frequently to save the situation. As a result 50 cars were bunched on the outward track and 25 on the inward-bound.

In Cambridge, Brighton, Brookline and Newton the situation was the same.

The trouble came from the short circuiting of an engine at the Harvard power station. One of the engines is undergoing repairs and the short circuiting of another unit caused a great reduction of the power.

TURKISH LOAN

OF 7,000,000 POUNDS TO BE FLOATED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The Deutsch bank is at the head of a syndicate of all the principal German and Austrian banks, including the Rothschilds, which will take the Turkish loan of 7,000,000 pounds Turkish (approximately $1,500,000).

The price is 84, with interest at 4 per cent. The loan will be secured by the customs revenues at Constantinople.

Germany secures the Ottoman loan after the failure of negotiations with Great Britain and France.

The loan, it is understood, is desired chiefly for the development of the Turkish army and navy, and it is thought that one of the obstacles to placing the loan in France or England was the reputed intention of Turkey to use the funds secured in the purchase of war materials in Germany.

BODY OF NEGRO

WAS FOUND DANGLING FROM A POLE

MACON, Ga., Nov. 10.—Telephone "trouble men" looking for wire trouble near Montezuma, Ga., came upon the cause in an unexpected and gruesome way when they found the body of a negro dangling from a pole and tangled up in the telephone wires. This was the negro lynched by a mob the morning before, charged with the murder of Marshal Bush of Montezuma. The "trouble" was removed.

JAILER KILLED

JACKSON, Ky., Nov. 10.—Wesley Turner, jailer of Breathitt county, was shot and killed on a street near the jail last night by "Bad Jack" Noble, a noted feudist and a prominent figure in the Hargis and Cockrell feuds. No cause for the killing is known. Turner and Noble had been close friends.

FRENCH-AMERICAN ORPHANAGE

Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., of St. Joseph's church states that he has sixty applications on the waiting list for admission to the French-American Orphanage at the corner of School and Pawtucket streets. There are at present about 150 children in the orphanage, 100 being girls. They receive instruction in the building, twelve nuns being the teachers. This building was formerly the home of Frederick Ayer and is one of the most beautiful in Lowell. Rev. Fr. Watelle says there is great need of a general orphanage for the entire city as some of the parishes have many children that should be placed in such an institution if any were available.

MONITOR PURITAN ROBBERS SCARED

Will be Blown to Pieces

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 10.—In order to test the resisting power of armor plate when it comes in direct contact with high explosives, the monitor Puritan, which ten years ago cost $1,500,000, will be blown to pieces in Norfolk harbor next Tuesday. The Puritan, now at Norfolk navy yard, will be towed to Craney Island and experts from the navy department will place mines along her waterline. These will be connected by electric wires running to the island and at the appointed time the charges will be exploded.

Naval officials from Washington will witness the test and officers of the local navy yard and from the ships now here also will be spectators.

The spot selected for the destruction of the Puritan is almost the identical place where the Merrimack, of Civil war fame, was destroyed by confederates to prevent her falling into the hands of the Yankees.

SPEAKER WALKER

Is Out for the Governorship

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Joseph Walker of Brookline, speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives, announced yesterday that he was a candidate for re-election as speaker in 1911 and for the republican nomination for governor next fall.

The announcement was drawn from him at this time partly because he was being mentioned as a candidate for the United States senate against Sen. Lodge, and partly because his friends feared the strong showing made by Lieut.-Gov. Frothingham in the state election would prevent the breaking of the succession custom, in which they do not believe.

Before the election the republican machine leaders were planning to sidetrack Mr. Frothingham and nominate some other man for governor next year. In this connection the name of Congressman Weeks has been prominently mentioned.

Mr. Frothingham has never received much support from what is known as the machine, and whether it would be with him in a fight with Walker is a question. Mr. Walker says he will appeal for nomination directly to the rank and file of the party. In his announcement, he says:

"So many of my friends are asking me what my plans for the future are that I have decided to make the following announcement: 'I have been elected to the legislature of 1911. I am a candidate for speaker of the house of representatives. I shall not accept another nomination for election to the house, but shall run for governor of the commonwealth next fall. I shall make my appeal for nomination directly to the rank and file of the republican party, and shall depend for active support upon my friends and upon those who believe in the principles and policies for which I stand.

"I believe the greatest evils in politics today is the excessive use of money. Unless the nomination of my party comes to me without the use of money, directly or indirectly, I do not wish it. I also wish to state that, if I am again elected speaker of the house of representatives, I shall not allow my candidacy for governor to influence my committee appointments or my other acts as speaker in the slightest degree."

$50,000,000 LOAN

LONDON, Nov. 10.—An agreement was signed today by which English, German and French banks will participate in the loan of $50,000,000 which an American syndicate will make to China.

The agreement provides also for the co-operation of the signatories in the matter of future loans to the Chinese government and mutual participation therein. The banks concerned are the Morgan house, the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Co., the bank of India China and the Dutch East Asiatic bank.

NAVAL DEPOT TRANSFERS

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 10.—The formal transfer of the Esquimaux naval depot from the control of the British admiralty to the Canadian government was made today, great ceremony marking the occasion. In the presence of the deputy minister of the naval service, Admiral Kingsmill and other officers, the British Union Jack was hauled down by sailors from the British warship Shearwater. Then another Union Jack was hoisted by the men of the Canadian cruiser Rainbow, which arrived from England Monday.

ADAMS &

PROFESSOR PARKER

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Prof. Herschel C. Parker, of Columbia, university who recently returned from his exploration of Mount McKinley, today made public a series of photographs taken near the Alaskan mountain which he claims is indisputable evidence that Dr. Cook never reached the top of the highest peak in America.

Prof. Parker states that he found the mountain peak which Dr. Cook photographed and called Mt. McKinley the "top of the continent" and in support of his statement showed a photograph of a mountain peak taken by his expedition last summer and pointed out that a comparison of the two photographs shows in detail identical outlines of rock formation, proving that they are pictures of the same mountain.

"The mountain which I photographed," said Prof. Parker, "was twenty miles away from Mount McKinley, 15,000 feet below its summit. This is the same peak that Cook photographed and called the 'top of the continent'."

Prof. Parker corroborated the confession made a year ago by Edward Harrill, guide of Dr. Cook that they never reached the top of Mount McKinley.

"We left our boat on the Tokositna at about the same spot where Dr. Cook and Harrill took the ice," said Prof. Parker, who was a member of Dr. Cook's expedition in 1906. "My idea was to follow as closely as possible the route taken by the doctor and we had no difficulty in doing this with Harrill's map at hand. In a few days our party reached the spot noted on the map as taken. This was in the Amphitheatre glacier in the foothills of Mount McKinley, twenty miles from its base.

"Having reached the place the problem now confronting us was to pick out the rock on which Harrill stood when he was photographed with the flag in his hand. This, perhaps, was easier to do than one might imagine, in spite of the fact that there were innumerable rocky peaks on all sides of us. There will be noticed in the lower right hand corner of Dr. Cook's photograph a peak in the distance, the formation on the top of which should make it easily distinguishable. It was, therefore, a comparatively simple matter to identify the peak as the second of the seven peaks of Ruth glacier, only a few miles away from where we stood. Dr. Cook has said there are twelve peaks, but he evidently did not carry his investigations far enough to discover there are only seven. Then we soon found the rock we wanted in the snow saddle Harrill mentioned and at last we are at the 'top of the continent'."

"You will remember that Harrill in the picture in Dr. Cook's book captioned 'First five of the twelve new peaks of Ruth glacier' was taken on the same day that Dr. Cook took the famous photograph of the guide. That this statement was true is readily noted. In another of the pictures entitled 'An amphitheatre' the rock itself on which Harrill stood may be seen.

"On account of the formation of the snow cornice it was impossible to photograph the rock from the exact spot where Dr. Cook himself stood. These cornices are shaped according to the whims of the winds that blow and the formation varies from year to year. It will also be noted that there is more snow in the photograph I took. This is due to the fact that I was there in July, while Dr. Cook's photograph was taken in September.

A considerable amount of snow would naturally melt away in two summer months. But you can readily see that the photographs are of one and the same rock and a very paltry rock it is at that. I duplicated a number of other photographs in Dr. Cook's book at totally different points from where the doctor says they were taken and these, with a detailed account of my expedition, will be made public at a later date. But these photographs are of far less importance than that of the 'summit' itself. After getting all the material I wanted in this neighborhood we pushed on twenty miles farther to the base of McKinley and made numerous attempts to cross to the northeast ridge of the mountain. But our passage was effectually cut off by a 12,000 foot range of ice peaks at the head of Ruth glacier, which were impassable on account of glaciers and crevasses. Dr. Cook makes no mention of them in his book, never having been far enough to see them. Then, turning back, we went as far as possible on the south-west face of McKinley and after reaching an elevation of 10,000 feet gave up any further attempts to scale the mountain. While I regret that we were unable to get to the top still we accomplished the object of my mission and felt well satisfied with the result of the expedition."

When asked what he thought of the despatches from Alaska in the early summer saying that Tom Lloyd had reached the top of the mountain, Prof. Parker said he desired to correct some statements which had been attributed to him concerning the matter.

"I never said," he declared, "that Tom Lloyd did not reach Mt. McKinley's summit. What I did say was that although our party got within seven miles of it none of us could see even with the strongest of glasses, the flag or pole Lloyd says he planted there to stay. How ridiculous, therefore, the statements were that the flag had been seen from Fairbanks, 14 miles away."

Prof. Parker, in spite of his failure to conquer McKinley, believes that a way will yet be found to scale the mountain.

SUICIDE AT SEA

Woman Jumped Overboard From Steamer

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The suicide at sea of Mrs. Nancy Rice, wife of H. W. Rice of 51 Hawes street, of Providence, R. I., was reported when the steamer Zealand arrived here today from Liverpool and Queensdown. Mrs. Rice, who had been living for a while at Manchester, England, and was returning to America, had appeared melancholy on the voyage across. Last Friday morning Mrs. Rice suddenly kissed the hand of a woman with whom she was talking and then leaped into the sea. Because of the severe weather the steamer was proceeding at half speed and it was impossible to put the ship about without grave danger of other passengers being washed overboard. Mrs. Rice was about 40 years old.

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Charged With Murder of Husband

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Nov. 10.—"We were out in the field and as he was showing me how to shoot the gun he stumbled and the gun went off."

This was the explanation of the fatal shooting of Frank Averill given by his wife to a daughter of Mrs. Frank Wells, according to Mrs. Wells' testimony in the trial of Mrs. Averill, charged with the murder of her husband. It was to the home of Mrs. Wells, adjoining his own, that Averill dragged himself after being shot. While on the stand Mrs. Wells faintly.

Another witness, Mrs. John Bird, burst into tears as she told of being at the Averill home when Averill's body was brought from the hospital. Thereupon Mrs. Averill also broke down and wept.

It is understood that the state will rest its case tomorrow and that the defense will open. Counsel for the defense said today that the case will reach its climax with Mrs. Averill on the witness stand.

U.S. AMBASSADOR

Reports on Trouble in Mexico City

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Official despatches giving details of the anti-American demonstration in Mexico City yesterday reached the state department today from U. S. Ambassador Wilson and Consul General Franklin.

Mr. Wilson confirmed the press reports that he had protested to the Mexican department of foreign relations against the insults offered Americans and that the riot grew out of the lynching of a Mexican, Antonio Rodriguez, at Rock Springs, Texas, on Nov. 3. Mr. Franklin's despatch said that the riotous students who paraded the streets cried "Death to the Americans" and threatened the consulate. He also told how these students had pulled an American flag from a business house and had trampled it under foot.

The department is awaiting further advice from Ambassador Wilson before taking any action in the matter.

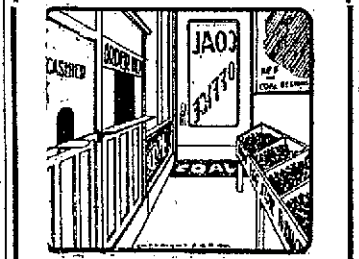

Ambassador De la Barra called at the state department about noon but he said he had no information from his government regarding the anti-American demonstration in the city of Mexico.

The two governments are in this position:

If the state department here finds that Ambassador Wilson's reports are justified a polite request must be made upon Mexico for an expression of regret and also for suitable reparation if any damage has been suffered by Americans. On the other hand the Mexican government must look to the state department for a similar expression and reparation in the case of Antonio Rodriguez, the Mexican who was reported to have been burned at the stake by a mob of Texans at Rock Springs.

If it should turn out that the Mexican police actually killed several of the rioters in the city of Mexico then it may be that the state department will take the ground that the Mexican government's attitude is satisfactory and that it had meted out the necessary punishment to the guilty parties, while so far as known no American has been punished for the burning of Rodriguez.

It is not believed that either of these indictments will have any immediate serious results.

It Won't Last Forever

You may be foolish enough to think that GEORGE HENRY WOOD, the Wholesale and Retail Dealer, who has bought the Grant Jewelry Stock, will be able to keep giving valuable, ornamental and useful jewelry at less than half the regular price of the other dealers, but if you do think so that is a mistake as there is an end to all good things, and there will be an end to the Big Bankrupt Sale; but while it lasts we propose to make it a hummer and a sale long to be remembered. The only corset that actually reduces. Common sense will tell you that a corset with band hooked permanently in place or with a so-called reinforced front cannot reduce only to the extent to which the back laces can be drawn. The Wonder Test Corset after being laced in the usual manner then allows for an adjustment which still further reduces, producing an effect impossible with any other corset. THE HORSE TO REIGN AGAIN AS KING FOR ONE SHORT WEEK

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The horse is going to be king again for a short week. The opening of the annual horse show in Madison Square Garden next week is attracting the attention of owners throughout the United States and Europe. More crowned heads of Europe have sent horses to take part in the exhibition than ever before, while the entries from the United States demonstrate that the automobile and the aeroplanes have not put the horse on the retired list. Society promises to make the show a memorial one for lavish dinners and display of gowns. Hundreds of prominent people from a score of cities have engaged boxes and seats.

IMPORTANT PLACES

That Governor-Elect Foss Will Have to Fill

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Now that the election is settled and Congressman Eugene N. Foss chosen governor, interest naturally centers on the appointments that are to come next year when members of various boards and commissions finish their terms. There are a number of ones that are of much importance.

Police Commissioner Stephen O'Meara ends his term next year and there will be some interest attached to his position because of the prominence of the job.

Chairman Charles Warren of the civil service commission is another whose term expires next year. Because of the controversies relative to appointments by Mayor Fitzgerald that were turned down by the commission many politicians expect to see someone else appointed.

John P. Moore of the Boston finance commission will also finish his term next year. Another important place is that occupied by Chairman Charles G. Crocker of the Boston transit commission. Horace G. Allen, another member of the commission, also completes his term next year.

Then there is the highway commission. Frank D. Kemp of Springfield ends his term on the commission in 1911. Morris Schaft finishes his term as member of the gas and electric light commission also.

Clinton White of the railroad commission also comes under the head of those who complete their terms during the next administration. Ellerton P. Whitney of the Metropolitan Park commission is another.

Chairman Frederick G. Pettigrove of the prison commission likewise ends a term in 1911. William D. T. Trefry, commissioner of corporations, also completes a term. Charles F. Gettemy of the state board of publication, too, is on the list. A number of the members of the departments such as inspectors and also of the district police come up for reappointment. Following is the list of those whose terms expire next year:

State board of agriculture, Charles E. Ward, Rockland.
Ballot law commission, Robert B. Dodge, Newburyport.
Massachusetts commission for the blind, Sec. Walter Bradlee Snow, Watertown.
Boston finance commission, John P. Moore.
Boston police commissioner, Stephen O'Meara, Boston.
Boston transit commission, Chairman George G. Crocker, Boston; Horace G. Allen, Boston.
State board of charity, Jeffrey R. Brackett, Boston; Abraham C. Ratchinsky, Boston.
Civil service commission, chairman Charles Warren, Dedham.
State board of conciliation and arbitration, Harry P. Morse, Haverhill.
Commissioner of corporations, William D. T. Trefry, Marblehead.
Controller of county accounts, Charles R. Prescott, Malden.
Board of registration in dentistry, Thomas J. Barrott, Worcester.
Board of Education—Thomas B. Fitzpatrick, Brookline; Paul H. Hanus, Cambridge; Levi L. Conant, Worcester.
Board of registration in embalming—Chairman Thomas H. Reilly, Westboro.
Full River police board—James Tansy, Fall River.
Firemen's relief fund commission—Benjamin W. Wells, Boston.
Gas and electric light commission, Morris Schaft, Boston; inspectors, Charles D. Jenkins, Winchester; Lawrence S. James, Boston; Leslie R. Moore, Newton.
Trustee of general insurance guaranty fund, George Wigglesworth, Milton.
Harbor and land commission, Heman A. Harding, Chatham.
State board of health, Gerard C. Tobey, Wareham.
Highway commission, Frank D. Kemp, Springfield.
Board of prison commission, Ellerton P. Whitney, Milton.
Metropolitan water and sewerage board, Henry P. Walcott, Cambridge.
Nautical training school commission, William E. McKay, Milton.
Board of registration in pharmacy, Pres. Ernest O. Engstrom, Pittsfield.
State examiners of plumbers, James C. Coffey, Worcester.
Board of prison commissioners, chairman Frederick G. Pettigrove, Ellerton P. Whitney, Boston.
Board of railroad commissioners,

Clinton White, Melrose; inspectors, John H. Parant, Worcester; John W. Ogden, Malden.
Commissioner of state aid and pensions, Charles W. Hastings, Weymouth.
Trustees of the state library, Chairman Josiah H. Benton, Boston.
Tax commissioner, William D. T. Trefry.
Board of registration in veterinary medicine, Henry S. Lewis, Chelsea.
Vachueli mountain commission, John T. Burnett, Southboro.

LOWELL SUICIDE

Chas. Johnson Hanged Himself in Maine

BELFAST, Nov. 10.—Charles Johnson, 63, committed suicide by hanging himself in the stable adjoining his house at Head of Tide, several miles out. His body was found by his wife, who cut it down and called a physician, but too late. The Johnson family moved here from 827 Mammoth road, Lowell, Mass., where Mr. Johnson was for some time in the employ of the city.

Johnson was well known in this city and had considerable property.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Spindle City lodge, I. O. G. T., met Tuesday night in Odd Fellows temple. There was a large attendance and considerable business was transacted during the meeting, the principal business being the election of officers which resulted in the following choice: C. T. Eddy Young, V. T.; Stephen Taylor, secretary; Bessie Bent, financial secretary; Frank E. McLean; treasurer; Richard Roberts; chaplain; Alice McLean; marshal; Stephen Miller; D. M. Little; Kenda; guard; Chester Reid; sentinel; Fred Osgood; P. C. T. Sarah Roberts; pianist; A. C. Dege. Delegates and alternates were chosen to the next session of the district lodge which will be held in Good Templar hall, Gorham street, Saturday, Nov. 19. A membership and "good of the order" contest will be held the coming quarter, the contesting teams to be explained by S. Roberts and P. E. McLean. A turkey supper will be provided by the losing team. The next meeting will be held Nov. 22.

The regular meeting of Mt. Zion lodge, Good Templars, was held Tuesday night. Considerable routine business was transacted, after which there was the appointment of the different committees for the ensuing quarter. Visitors from other lodges in this city.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Martin O'Hearn and John A. O'Hearn, both of Lowell in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts to The Central Savings Bank, a corporation established under the laws of said Commonwealth and located at 125 State Street, Boston, Mass., recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the Northern District of said County of Middlesex, Book 376, Page 6, and in breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed, on the premises hereinafter described, on Saturday, the third day of December, A. D. 1910, at two o'clock and thirty minutes in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain piece of land with the buildings thereon, containing five thousand three hundred and eighty-eight (5378) square feet, more or less, situated on the northerly side of Broadway street, in said Lowell, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the southeasterly corner of the premises on said Broadway at the southeasterly corner of land now or formerly of the heirs of William Gascon, thence north 23 1/2 degrees west at right angles to said Broadway along said Daceon land eighty-eight feet to the point of beginning; thence easterly along said Broadway sixty-one feet to a line parallel to and sixty-one feet distant from the line first described; thence southerly on a line parallel to and sixty-one feet distant from the first described line 88 and 96-100 feet to said Broadway; thence easterly along said Broadway sixty-one feet to the point of beginning.

The above described premises will be sold and conveyed subject to any and all unpaid taxes, municipal or other assessments and tax sales which may be due or to become due thereon. The purchaser will be required to pay $300 in cash at the time and place of sale, and the balance in ten days from the day of sale, at 12 o'clock noon, at said Bank.

THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK.

SUPERIOR COURT

Libel Suits of Harrington vs. Long and Long et als

The case of John H. Harrington vs. Dennis A. Long for alleged libel went to trial before Judge Fox in the superior court, shortly before noon today.

Messrs. Francis W. and Stanley B. Qua appeared for the plaintiff and Pickman and Harvey for the defendant.

Lawyer Qua occupied over an hour in reading the plaintiff's declaration containing 35 counts and recess was taken as he was about to conclude.

Lawyer Qua finished the reading of the pleadings in the case shortly after the opening of the afternoon session of the superior court.

Mr. Qua then made his opening address in which he stated that the actions against the two other defendants, the Boston Post and G. C. Prince, had been discontinued, and that Mr. Long would be the only defendant. He explained that the case is different from the other libel cases before them in that the alleged libels covered a period of two years, daily and Sunday, a series of bitter personal attacks on the private character and the family of the plaintiff. He called attention also to the fact that the defendant in his answer had not claimed that the article in question was true.

In the conclusion of the opening counsel conferred with the court and then six witnesses for the plaintiff were sworn.

John H. Harrington

John H. Harrington, proprietor of The Sun and the plaintiff, was the first witness. He testified that he received his education in the public schools, leaving school at 13 to go to work in the mill. "At the age of 15," said witness, "I was apprenticed to learn the printing trade. My brother, Daniel, was a year ahead of me as an apprentice. I worked four years as an apprentice and then my brother and I went into the printing business in an attic in Dummer street. We remained in business together until 1881. In 1878 we started the Weekly Sun. In 1881 my brother lost his health and he sold his interest to me and then went to Colorado."

"Have you known of all the people in the printing business in Lowell since 1873?" asked Mr. Qua.

"Yes."

"Do you know of any two brothers who were in the printing business and one of whom sold out to the other?"

"I knew of none but myself and my brother."

At this point copies of the defendant's paper were introduced as evidence after which Mr. Harrington resumed testifying that he was the proprietor of The Sun and how long it had been in existence.

"How long did your brother remain west?" asked Mr. Qua.

"Until March, 1882. He came home at that time and died three months or thereabouts, later."

"Did he leave a widow?"

"Yes."

"How long did she live?"

"Until March 30, 1882."

"Where, if you know, did your brother's widow die?"

"In St. John's hospital, this city."

"Did you know what she died of?"

"I don't know exactly, but she had a chronic internal weakness that made her subject to collapses or fainting spells, and I presume she died in one of these."

"Does your paper take any liquor advertisements?"

"Not since we took a stand against license."

For how long have you not published any liquor advertisements?"

"Since the fall of 1902."

Referring to the 14th count in relation to an article in the defendant's daily paper asked him as to certain names referred to, all being employees of the plaintiff.

"Did these articles cause you any pain?"

"They caused me the greatest pain and anguish of my life. They drove me almost to a frenzy."

A question as to the effect of these

TWO ARE DEAD

Men Shot in District Attorney's Office in Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Walter G. Fall, indicted and awaiting trial on a charge of assault on a fourteen year old girl, shot and killed Frank Rees, step-father of the child, and Police Sergeant Frederick Schiehuber, the principal witnesses against him, as they were waiting in the district attorney's office today to lay their evidence before District Attorney Joseph Pelletier. Fall then attempted to commit suicide, but was overpowered and placed under arrest.

Fall was indicted recently for assaulting Rees' stepdaughter, Esther Fogg, and the case was about to come to trial in the superior criminal court. Fall, in the meantime, had furnished sureties and was out on bail.

This forenoon Rees and Schiehuber went to the district attorney's office in the Suffolk county court house in Pemberton square to talk over the

DOUBLE SHOOTING

Two Men Accidentally Injured While Hunting in Maine

BINGHAM, Me., Nov. 10.—A double shooting accident among hunters occurred today near Indian pond, 35 miles north of here. Walter Dyer, aged 40, of Solon, was shot through the lungs and is in a very critical condition. It had not been possible to bring him out of the woods up to early forenoon. John Tuscan of Solon was shot through the fleshy part of the arm but the wound was not considered serious. Both men were mistaken for deer and were members of a party of four from Solon who had divided into pairs.

Tuscan and Henry Nottage started out in one direction and Dyer and his son Ivan went in another. After making a wide detour the two parties approached each other. It was understood that Ivan Dyer seeing a movement in the undergrowth, thought he saw a deer and fired, his bullet reaching Tuscan. At about the same instant Nottage, who was near Tuscan, thought he, too, saw a deer, and fired. The bullet from his rifle entered Walter Dyer's back and passed through the lungs.

ALD. R. K. DEXTER CITY HALL NEWS

Out as Candidate for Mayoralty Nomination Meeting of Aldermen to Draw Jurors

By a definite announcement of his intention to run for the mayoralty nomination on the republican ticket, Alderman Royal K. Dexter has set at rest the various inquiries as to whether he would be a candidate.

Speaking of his decision last evening he said:

"I did not wish to inject my candidacy into any phase of the state election, which seemed to be raging a little about Lowell. I know there have been rumors, one way and the other, about it, but I thought it better taste to wait."

Mr. Dexter said: "I expect to win and I expect to win by fair, clean methods. If it takes any other kind then I don't want to be the nominee. However, I see no reason why there should be any descent to personalities in the campaign. I shall not speak on the street corners, but will appear before various organizations in the city and at public rallies."

"I believe in a conservative administration of the city but not one which means idleness. I believe in being progressive, but not radically so. There are some things which can be done by a straight business administration, but business isn't magic and not everything can be changed in a minute or a month, or even a year. I think the citizens will readily see the sort of administration I aim at, and I have received many assurances that this is what they want."

Mr. Dexter admitted that he has had much encouragement in entering the fight. He did not decide until he had quietly canvassed sentiment among the republicans throughout the city.

Mr. Dexter feels that his past service in the city council, two years in the lower board and three including the present in the upper, has given the citizens an opportunity to judge whether he is the kind of man they should select for mayor of the city.

Throughout that time he has been constantly a member of the committee on appropriations, the committee which probably has had more to do with a direction of public expenditures than any other board or committee connected with the government. He was born in Lowell and always lives here, and is connected with the S. K. Dexter, wholesale house at 360 Middlesex street. He is well known in business circles throughout the city. His home is at 319 Wilder street.

LARCENY CHARGE

Man Believed to be William Kohler

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The man arrested last night as William Kohler, a palmer, charged with being a fugitive from justice in Boston, where he is alleged to have defrauded Mrs. Dora T. Coffin of this city out of $24,000, when arraigned today would not admit his identity as Kohler. It was charged that the alleged larceny took place at the palmer's office maintained by Kohler under the name of Eugene Conrad at 88 Boylston street, Boston.

On the advice of counsel, he stated, the prisoner refused to answer the question as to whether or not he was Kohler. Mrs. Coffin, the complainant, was examined and testified that she knew the prisoner to be Kohler. Her testimony satisfied Magistrate Herbert, who, however, granted a request to put the case over until Saturday. The prisoner was committed to the Tombs. A representative of the Boston police was here prepared to take the prisoner to the Massachusetts capital.

LARCENY CHARGE

Man Arrested By Local Police

A young man calling himself Alfred Moehnerger, was arrested this afternoon by Inspectors Charles Ladanne and Thomas McClooghrey on a warrant alleging larceny. The police story of the affair is to the effect that Moehnerger sold a cash register to a storekeeper in Moody street and failed to deliver the cash register for which it is said he received a check of $25.

HAD FINE TIME

Clan Grant Entertained Merry Visitors

A good old Scotch time was held in Grafton hall last evening when Clan Grant, O. S. C., of this city, entertained brethren from Lawrence, Andover and Haverhill. The Lawrence clanmen came in style in a special car, and they marched up Merrimack street to the music of three husky pipers. There were 100 guests from Clan MacPherson, of Lawrence, 75 from Clan Johnstone, of Andover and Clan Douglas, of Haverhill. After a reception the fun was begun and Chief J. McKeehan of Clan MacPherson thanked the local clan for its hospitality. Then the good old Scotch fun followed. The three pipers were: Stewart of Haverhill; Ramsay of Lawrence, and Scott of Lowell.

The program was as follows: Reading, Peter Caddell, Lowell; song, John Brown, Lowell; trio, "Willie Brew'd a Peck o' Maut," Smith brothers of Lowell; bagpipe selections, Piper Stewart of Haverhill; songs, Thomas Scott, Andrew Haldane and Robert Anderson of Clan MacPherson, Lawrence; songs, David Robb and Alfred Robb of Clan Johnstone, Andover; Highland fling, Nell McDougall, Clan MacPherson, Lawrence; and songs, Thomas Bruce and William Benson, Clan Johnstone, Andover. It was nearly midnight when the guests departed for their homes. Last night's gathering of the four clans was the most successful event of its kind yet held in this vicinity.

The general committee having charge consisted of: Chief John H. Tait, chairman; Tanist Neil McN. Watters, secretary; John Brookbridge, treasurer; and Clansmen John Livingston, John Brown, Andrew Mowatt, Donald MacFadyen and Alexander Campbell.

WAIF A GOVERNOR

Hooper Was Picked Up on Streets

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Ben W. Hooper, the newly elected governor of Tennessee, was found on the streets of Knoxville less than 40 years ago and was committed to the care of an orphan asylum. His parentage is unknown.

When he was 10 years of age he attracted the attention of Capt. Hooper of Newport, Tenn., who gave him an education and his name, and before he was 21 years of age Hooper had graduated in law with distinction. He is a successful lawyer, and is considered wealthy.

He will be the first republican governor Tennessee has had in many years, and the third in the history of the state.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

An attraction that should recommend itself to local theatregoers is Miss Gertrude Elliott (Mrs. Forbes Robertson) in Frances Hodgson Burnett's latest play, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," which is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 11th at the Opera House.

This will mark Miss Elliott's first appearance here as a star by herself, though she has visited America twice as co-star with her famous husband. Yet before she married Forbes Robertson, Miss Elliott, an American girl by birth, gave promise of becoming one of the foremost of the younger generation of English stars. Her success in Mrs. Burnett's play, which she appeared in in London for an entire season, proved the greatest triumph of her career. There are but few of our native actresses who possess the unusual capabilities of this young woman, and practically none of those who rival her in capability possess her advantage of extreme youth.

In addition, Miss Elliott has a very competent company playing in her support.

This is another link in the long chain of evidence to prove the reliability of this standard medicine for women.

SOUSA'S BAND

Next Sunday afternoon at the Opera House, Sousa and his band will give a concert, and a fine program will be heard. As is the custom always with the band organizations of this kind, concerts are given in two cities each day. Following the engagement here in the afternoon, Sousa and his band will appear at the Boston theatre for the evening performance and the same excellent program to be heard in Boston will be given. In addition to the band numbers to be given, there are to be heard the usual excellent soloists that are to be counted on as appearing with this famous bandmaster wherever he gives a concert. Among those to be heard are Miss Virginia Root, noted soprano; Nicolo Zeller, violinist; and Herbert L. Clark, cornetist. The band numbers fifty musicians and will be seen in the usual excellent Sousa program. Seats are now on sale.

"QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER"

Like a crisp and refreshing autumn breeze, straight from the hills of New England, bringing with it the sweet aroma of the woods and the homely music of the farmyard, "Quincy Adams Sawyer" will come to the Opera House for two nights and two matinees, starting next Monday, Nov. 11, for a return engagement, and so favorable was the impression made when this big production was here before that crowded attendance is assured. "Quincy Adams Sawyer" is entirely unlike any of the several great rural dramas that have found their way to the hearts of the people in the past decade. It has a quaintness and unobtrusive sentiment peculiarly its own. Its chief charm is its naturalness. It is never theatrical, never dramatic, always natural. The characters are drawn so near to life that it requires an effort to become convinced that it is not real. Though the story is simple and very homely, it appeals in a mighty way to all kinds of playgoers. Nearly every one of the country plays on the stage today make it a point to caricature rural life and rural characters, but "Quincy Adams Sawyer" depicts life as it really is in a quiet Massachusetts farming town. The backing has some in the third act has created more talk among those who have seen it than any one incident in a play for a long time in this country. We will have here the same cast and scenic effects used in the New York, Philadelphia and Boston runs.

NEW OPERA COMPANY

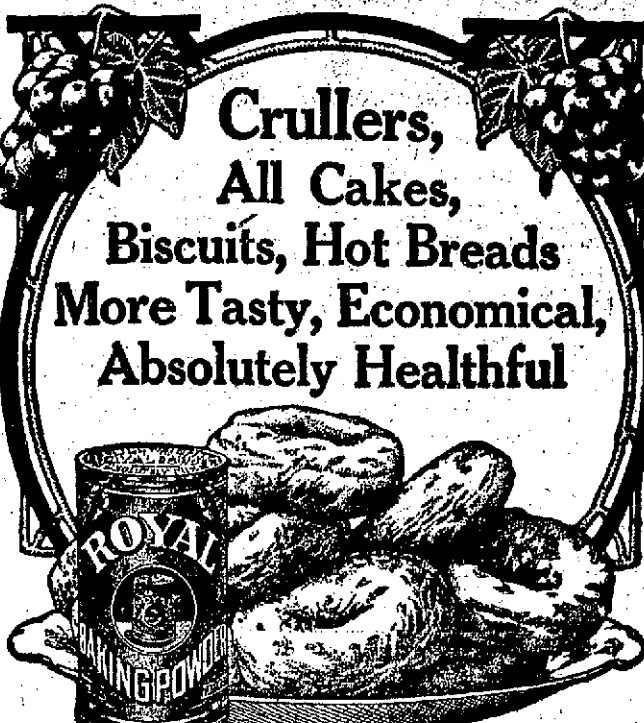

Joseph Carl Brell, the distinguished American composer, whose one-act opera-comedy, "Love Laughs at Locksmiths," will be given here on Nov. 12, at the Opera House by the New Opera company, is the authority for the statement that Volezka, the Imperial Russian dancer, one of the artists of this company, is the most mysterious personage he has ever met, barring even the lonely Duse.

"The poetic, profoundly moving soul dances of this lady were the talk of London society last season," says Mr. Brell, who was chosen as managing director of the wealthy founders of the New Opera company. "I felt I needed her and secured her promise to come to America through the good offices of Miss Ethel Smythe, the operatic composer, whose talent has been so carefully fostered by the Empress Eugenie. "It seems that Volezka and Miss Smythe had become mutual friends through certain royal introductions and through a mutual love of certain forms of music. But of the private life of this artist I know absolutely nothing, nor does anyone else. Like Duse, she has been classed as a lover of solitude, whose great art is the fruit of loneliness and sorrow."

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Not to make any comparisons, but this week's show at Hathaway's theatre, is the best the town has seen in a long time. Dullness doesn't exist for a second, and the musical and comedy features are bound to be effective. The big topical attraction is "The Silver Bottle," a wholly likeable musical comedy, with prima donna, chorus, comedians and an air of smartness to it which is bound to "take." Pauline Perry is starred in this vehicle.

"Election Night" is the title of a comedy sketch which is more than fairly good, and the other acts on the bill—not a poor one among them—are: Seven Alexandroffs, Russian folk dancers; H. T. MacConnell, in a side splitting melange; "The Skatells," skaters who dance and skate, too; Elsa Ford, charming little comedienne; the Coventrys, English musical artists, and the Mathascope, with new films.

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats for women at the matinees.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

If you enjoy just straight amusing vaudeville, you will enjoy the bill which is being presented at the Merrimack Square theatre this week.

Gertie LeClaire and her pickaninies are one of the features.

The Seenie Stock company is also presenting a delightful little farce in "The Village Widow."

Other excellent acts on the bill are the Wilkes, comedy vocal bar artists; Bijou Russell, a really wonderful and dancin' and singer of coco

THEATRE VOYONS

There is hardly a character in American history which is so universally loved as Abraham Lincoln, and at the Theatre Voyons today one of the feature subjects depicts the great Civil war president doing one of the kind deeds which he was noted for. "The Woman of Samaria," a biblical subject is a most beautiful picture. The character of Christ is most reverently played and the staging is unusually magnificent.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The vaudeville offering at the Academy today is of unusual merit. It consists of the three dancing Mitchellie, colored marvels, with the Creole Black Prince as Ron-Bon Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. Lavarie in a comedy sketch entitled "Hubby's Bluff," and Adams & Mack comedy magicians, together with new moving pictures. Admission 5 and 10 cents. Watch for bargain day at the Academy.

Archbishop O'Connell Says Halt Must Be Called

BOSTON, November 10.—Speaking last evening before the Associated Charities of Boston, at the organization's annual meeting in Jacob Sleeper hall, Archbishop O'Connell characterized divorce as a national menace and placed emphasis upon the necessity of safeguarding the family for the sake of preventing disintegration of the state, if for no other reason. He said:

"There are many problems facing us upon the just solution of which depends the future character of American life and thought. Chief among them is the problem of family life. It seems to me we have gone too far in the assertion of individual legal right. 'Individuality is good and its development within proper bounds a necessity for our national greatness. But pushed to an exaggerated degree it may jeopardize the common good and become instead of a support of our national strength a very real menace to it."

"The increase in the number of divorces in the United States during the past few years is simply appalling, and the direct deadly consequence of this legal license to sever the marriage bond for inadequate causes has been the gradual tendency among large bodies of the population to regard lightly and frivolously the most sacred of earthly relations and the genuine and natural foundation of family life."

"Thinking men and women all over the country are beginning to see the dire effects of this ill-considered marriage legislation, and the moral havoc which it has produced. They are beginning to appreciate, too, the wisdom of the Catholic church in standing by the sacramental character of marriage, in defending against every attack the indissolubility of the marital bond, and in sternly rebuffing face against human indulgence in this matter."

Time to Call a Halt

"The number of families disrupted by divorce alone during the past 30 years in the United States makes one of the lamentable records in our history as a people. It is time to call a halt. There is a crying need of arousing the public conscience upon this issue so vital to our moral well-being. 'The blight of divorce is attacking the moral fibre of the people, is undermining the foundation of family life, is weakening the moral resources of the nation.'"

"The community has the power to lessen this evil. Laws making divorce easy can never remain upon the statute books against the will of the people. More stringent divorce laws would speedily diminish the number of family disruptions, for when men and women realize that the marriage contract cannot be easily broken they are more inclined to compose their differences and to bear each other's burdens."

"The sooner a crusade in favor of family unity based upon the enduring character of the marriage bond is started the better safeguarded will be the family and the moral strength of the nation. The work of alleviating human suffering will be lessened, and the whole force of charity may be turned into its legitimate channels."

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM FACES GRAVE CRISIS

BRUSSELS, Nov. 10.—King Albert of Belgium is facing a serious problem. When he attempted to open parliament a few days ago he was surrounded by crowds in the street, who hurled petitions at his carriage and followed him into the parliament hall, demanding that he give the people universal suffrage. The king has promised to meet a delegation of citizens during the coming week and hear their demands. Many threats are openly made in the streets of Brussels against the king unless he grants the demands of the people.

THE EXPORTS OF MANUFACTURES DURING THE YEAR 1910

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Exports of manufactures from the United States in the year which ends with next month will, for the first time, exceed 800 million dollars in value. The September export figures, just completed by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor, seem to fully justify the prediction that the year's exports of manufactures will cross the 800 million dollar line and surpass those of any earlier year. For the single month of September the exports of manufactures aggregated 70 million dollars and for the nine months ending with September, 613 million, an average of 68 million dollars per month for that portion of the year for which figures are now available. Should this average be maintained during the remainder of the year—an expectation which seems quite justified—the total value of exports of manufactures in the 12 months ending with December will be over 800 million dollars. The figures thus far show a large gain over those of last year—in both classes of manufactures. The group, "manufactures ready for consumption," shows for the nine months of the present year a total exportation of 402 million dollars, against 347 million in the corresponding months of 1909; and the group, "manufactures for further use in manufacturing," 211 million, against 187 million in the same months of last year. For the same months of September manufactures ready consumption show a total exportation of 44 million dollars, against 38 million in September of last year, and manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 25 million, against 20 million in the same months of last year.

Manufactures are the only important class of exports which show a material gain in 1910, compared with 1909. Exports of foodstuffs in a crude condition in the nine months ending with September, 1910, show a total of but 60 million dollars, against 75 million in the same months of last year. Manufactures are the only important class of exports which show a material gain in 1910, compared with 1909. Exports of foodstuffs, partly or wholly manufactured, 180 million, against 205 million in the same months of last year; and while crude material for use in manufacturing shows a slight gain, having been 334 million dollars in the months ending with September,

SERIOUSLY ILL

Margaret Anglin in Critical Condition

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The condition of Miss Margaret Anglin continues serious. The physicians are undecided whether they will have to perform an operation or not. The famous actress, who was struck by a car in New York, is now in a critical condition. She has been in the hospital for several days and her condition is still serious.

KILLED HIMSELF

Sent Bullet Through His Heart

"WINCHENDON, Nov. 10.—'Allow me to write you a word to tell you that I am to die in a few moments for you. I have lost my head. Adieu.'"

Thus read a note which was found beside the body of Christopher Blaire, who shot himself through the heart yesterday. The note was addressed to Miss Nellie Landry, Thorndike, Mass. Two other notes, written in French like the first, were found addressed to brothers living in Canada and informing them of the writer's intention to take his own life.

Blaire was 32 years of age and was employed in a local factory. He resided at a boarding house on Mill street, where he committed suicide.

Woman Sues Her Husband's Parents

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Forty thousand barrels of kerosene oil in a tank of the Tide Water Oil company at Bayonne, N. J., went up with such a roar early last night that the countryside trembled for miles around. One man, working near the tank, is missing and is believed to have perished. Five others were seriously bruised and burned. The fire, confined by hard work to the one tank, promised to burn all night, illuminating the harbor like a giant torch.

The explosion crashed in one side of the company's office building, a three story brick structure and the flames soon destroyed it and contents. The total loss will exceed $75,000.

THOUSANDS OF Children Have Worms

But their parents do not know it. Worms cause three-fourths of child sickness.

Fessenden's WORM EXPPELLER Worth its weight in gold as a life saver for children. Costs only 25c at drug stores. Nothing else like it.

When a reporter called at the plaintiff's home yesterday afternoon he was told that Mrs. Fitch had gone to New York city and that, even if she were at home she would not discuss the case.

From the Fitches, defendants in the suit, it was learned that the son went away more than a year ago, that he was traveling for his health, and that his present whereabouts is unknown to his parents. Mr. Fitch said:

"My wife and I have never tried to exert any influence over my son in connection with his family affairs; we have always felt that he was capable of managing those himself. He knows they had grievances, however, and as this is the third time he has separated himself from his wife and he has now been gone for 17 months, I'm inclined to think he does not intend returning to her."

Who are broken down and made invalids by the drudgery of never ending household cares and duties, or by over-frequent bearing and nursing of children, and many other cares, burdens and strains which the weaker sex have to bear, are deserving of profound sympathy. But while sympathy is commendable what these unfortunate women most need is a good, honest, square-deal Restorative Tonic and Strength-giving Nervine and Regulator—one compounded and carefully adapted to act in harmony with woman's peculiar, delicate, ever sensitive organization.

Who so well fitted to select, carefully proportion the ingredients and compound a remedy for the cure of these distressing and often pain-wracking weaknesses and derangements, as the carefully and thoroughly educated and regularly graduated physician who has had a long and successful experience in treating just this class of cases.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

THIS MEDICINE IS

THE ONE REMEDY Now, and for over 40 years, sold by druggists for Woman's Peculiar Weaknesses, and Distressing Ailments, gotten up by one having all of the above qualifications.

THE ONE REMEDY which absolutely contains neither alcohol (which to most Women is rank poison) nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY which is so perfect in its composition and so good in its curative effects as to warrant its makers in putting its every ingredient, as they do, on its outside wrapper, verifying the same under solemn oath.

In all the above most important particulars, the "Favorite Prescription" stands absolutely alone—in a class all by itself—as woman's most reliable and trust-worthy remedy in time of sickness and distress. It is a pure glyceric extract made from American curative roots, found by long time experience most valuable in curing woman's weaknesses and derangements. The leaders in all schools of medical practice have endorsed each of its ingredients as of the best known remedies for the complicated affections for which it is recommended. These professional endorsements should count for far more than any number of lay testimonials. A booklet full of them sent free on receipt of name and address.

WEST ELECTED

He Was Chosen Governor of Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10.—As he led the election returns continue to come in the election of Oswald West, democrat, to be governor becomes almost a certainty. His majority over Jay Bowerman, republican, it appears, will approximate 3000.

The proposed constitutional amendment, permitting women to vote, was defeated. The constitutional amendment, prohibiting the sale of liquors, seems to have been defeated.

MADE GOOD FIGHT

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—The remarkable showing made by Thomas Van Lear, public ownership and socialist candidate for mayor of Minneapolis, is the feature of the election. Conceded now more than 5000 votes at the outside, Van Lear ran only 1000 behind the democratic and republican nominees, who are so close that a contest may be made.

Van Lear polled approximately 11,000 votes.

HOOPER'S PLURALITY

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—The latest figures given out by the fusion headquarters on the governorship place the plurality of Hooper, republican, at 19,000. Democratic State Chairman Vertrees alleges that frauds have been committed by the republicans in East Tennessee, but this is denied. The legislature is close. The democrats claim 18 out of 33 and 49 out of 89 representatives, with a chance of one or two more.

NIXON FOR SENATOR

CARSON CITY, Nev., Nov. 10.—The election of Gov. Nixon, republican, for a second term as United States senator from Nevada is assured today. The advisory vote in a majority of the precincts of the state gives Nixon 4666 and Pittman, democrat, 3557. Under the law, the advisory vote is binding on the legislature regardless of its political majority.

Tasker L. Odell, republican, defeated Gov. Denver S. Dickerson, democratic candidate for re-election, by a substantial majority.

W. B. Roberts, republican, is elected congressman at large.

THE REPUBLICANS WON

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 10.—With two-thirds of the returns in, the election of the entire republican ticket, with the possible exception of Brady for governor, is assured. French, republican, for congress, will have a plurality of about 15,000.

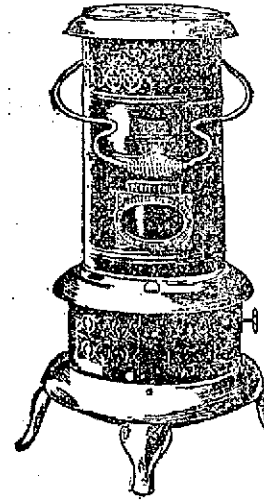

The race is close between Brady and Hawley for governor. The democratic committee claims Hawley's election by 664 and the republican committee claims Brady by 398.

LEBLANC TRIAL

194 Talesmen Have Been Summoned

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 10.—It was stated today at the office of the clerk of the Middlesex county court that 194 talesmen have been summoned for the trial of Hattie Leblanc, indicted for the alleged murder of Clarence F. Glover, in his laundry at Waltham a year ago. The trial will begin Nov. 28.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the tank burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-flaming flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the tank. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the tank by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

STOCK MARKET

WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Bears began to cover shorts and take profits—Some Railroad Stocks Made a Rally

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Stocks started at lower prices than last night without regard to recoveries which had been established in the London market before the opening here. The declines were generally small and were mingled with some gains but stocks were freely supplied and the dealings showed activity and variety. Consolidated Gas and Westinghouse Electric declined 1 and St. Paul and Pressed Steel Car 3. Chesapeake & Ohio and American Sugar advanced 1/2.

Stocks were fed to the market on rallies and prices broke again. U. S. Steel, Rock Island, the local stocks yielded. Third Ave. and Amn. Agl. Chem. fell 1-2. Rock Island and Amn. Car 1/4. Virginia Iron broke 4 points. By 11 o'clock the market had turned upwards and was ruling at its best.

Stocks were pressed for sale in continuation of the special profit-taking which began yesterday. Traders sold short and offered prices down on discounting their yielding tendency. U. S. Steel was freely liquidated on expressions of a poor showing of unfilled orders from the monthly statement. Reading and U. P. were notably weak. These three stocks declined 1/4, 1/2 and 1/2. The general list. Losses of a point were numerous. Slight rallies were numerous when the activity diminished. Bonds were regular.

The temporary respite which the list had from the selling movement did not bring much relief and prices fell again under renewed selling pressure. Union Pacific and United States Steel were off 2 points and Reading 2. Amalgamated Copper and American Car also broke 2 points. Southern Pacific 2 1/2. Anaconda 2. American Smelting 3/4, and Central Railroad of New Jersey 1/4.

A price was made of 76 for United States Steel, which was 2 1/2 under yesterday's close and 5 1/2 points below the highest of last week. The rally did not amount to much and the whole market became dull. Some of the notable losses were Westinghouse Electric 3/4, Chicago Great Western 1/4, the common 3 and Northern Pacific 2.

The market closed strong. There was a vigorous rebound when the bears began to buy to cover shorts and take profits. Reading rallied 5/8, U. P. 1 1/2. St. Paul 3/4, S. P. 2 1/2, and many others 1 to 1 1/2.

GOV.-ELECT FOSS A WAYWARD BOY

May Resign His Seat in Congress

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—When Congressman Foss takes the oath of office as governor next January will he resign as congressman from the 14th district? His term of congressman will not expire until next March 4 next. By that time he will have served as governor of Massachusetts three months. Means while the 14th district will be unrepresented at Washington.

Some of the practical politicians in the district would not be averse to seeing another special election down on the Cape to fill out the governor-elect's congressional term.

The Police Commissionership

Some republicans expressed great fear yesterday that Mr. Foss would appoint Surveyor Jeremiah McCarthy to succeed Stephen O'Meara when the latter's term of office expires next year and the suggestion was made that the best way to beat the governor-elect and the republican surveyor would be for Commissioner O'Meara to resign before Gov. Draper's term expires and have the governor reappoint the present commissioner's successor.

Under the law, it is claimed that "any vacancy occurring in the office shall be filled by the governor by an appointment for a term of five years." In this way, it is pointed out that Gov. Draper would be able to prevent Gov. Foss from naming a police commissioner who would be agreeable to the Boston democratic leaders. It is not thought likely, however, that the governor will adopt the suggestion.

It was also suggested that by following this course the governor might, with propriety, name his secretary, William A. Murphy, for the place.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—William H. Crowe, a hospital attendant at the state insane asylum in Cranston, was charged today with the death of Romeo Charbonneau, the inmate who was found dead of a fractured skull and broken rib at the institution on Oct. 28. Crowe is to be tried for manslaughter next Wednesday.

VAB VICTIS WOX

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The Prix Canot, a steep climb of 1200, distance 2 1/2 miles, was run at Autou today and won by Mr. Pizer's Auto Victis.

INJURIES FATAL

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 10.—Injuries sustained by Robert McLehlan in a football game between Dalhousie university and football team made up of members of the Wanderers cricket club on October 28 resulted in his death here today. McLehlan, who was 24 years old, was a player on the Wanderers team.

RECEIVER APPOINTED

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—On the petition of John B. Brindamour of Woonsocket, providing Judge Willard B. Tanner of the superior court has appointed George N. Girard of Woonsocket temporary receiver of the Union St. Jean Baptiste d'America, a fraternal insurance organization which has a large membership in several eastern states. In his petition Mr. Brindamour, a member of the corporation, alleges mismanagement of the funds and takes this means to preserve the assets of the organization. A hearing will be held next Monday.

THE DEMOCRATS

Will Control Next House of Congress By Safe Majority

The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed yesterday by a general survey of the field which disclosed with greater detail and precision just what results were accomplished. Late calculations of the national house of representatives, based on complete but official returns, show that the democrats will have a safe working majority of thirty.

The outcome of the United States senate is now definitely settled. The republicans are assured of 16 new senators which with thirty-four hold-overs gives them a total of fifty. The democrats are assured of fifteen new senators which with 25 hold-overs gives them a total of forty. Two senatorships are in doubt, namely the succession of the late Mr. Dilliver in Iowa and of Mr. Carter in Montana, where there are prospects of a tie.

nia, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota, (2), Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The fifteen democratic senators considered assured are from Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

A summary of the contest for governorship show the following democratic governors elected, with the approximate pluralities:

New York, Dix	60,000
New Jersey, Wilson	30,000
Connecticut, Baldwin	3,500
Massachusetts, Foss	33,000
Ohio, Harmon	60,000
Oklahoma, Crane
Oregon, West
Wyoming, Carey
Alabama, O'Neil	50,000
South Carolina, Biaz	60,000
Texas, Colquitt
North Dakota, Burke	3,000

The republican governors elected, with approximate pluralities are:

Pennsylvania, Tener	20,000
New Hampshire, Bass	6,000
Rhode Island, Pothier	900
Iowa, Carroll	10,000
Kansas, Stubb	5,000
Michigan, Osborn	40,000
Minnesota, Eberhart	50,000
Nebraska, Aldrich	5,000
South Dakota, Vasey	12,000
Wisconsin, McGovern
California, Johnson	25,000
Nevada, Oddie
Tennessee, Hooper	12,000

The governorships in two states are not yet reported as being beyond doubt, namely Colorado and Idaho.

SEN. BEVERIDGE

Will Be Succeeded By
J. W. Kern

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10.—Senator A. J. Beveridge's hopes for another term at Washington went glimmering yesterday when late returns showed conclusively that the democrats Tuesday elected a majority of the members of the Indiana assembly, which will meet next January to choose Mr. Beveridge's successor.

According to the latest figures the democrats will have a majority on joint ballot of 32. John W. Kern was endorsed last spring by the democrats for United States senator and will in all probability become the colleague of Senator Shively, also a democrat.

It is conceded last night that the democratic state ticket was elected by a plurality of about 15,000.

Senator Beveridge admitted that the tide was against him. He wrote the following statement:

"Fortunes of war; it is all right; twelve years of hard work; clean record; I am content."

For the first time in 13 years the democrats control every branch of the state government, the two United States senatorships and all but one congressional district.

SEC. DICKINSON

TO MAKE A WRITTEN REPORT TO
PRESIDENT TAFT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Secretary of War Dickinson saw President Taft yesterday for the first time since his return from his trip around the world. He had little opportunity to tell the president about his trip, however, as the latter was preparing to depart for Panama and had a special cabinet meeting on his hands. He promised to prepare a written report which he will have ready by the time Mr. Taft gets back from the isthmus.

In spite of the fact that it was not a particularly good time for the only democrat in Mr. Taft's official family to enter into the cabinet councils after several months' absence, Mr. Dickinson was there and listened to the political discussion. He took little part himself, however. As he afterwards expressed it, he had been away from the country for so long that he was not familiar with the political situation.

Mr. Dickinson submitted to the president a number of important questions pending before the war department.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The newly organized Ivy Lodge, Daughters of St. George, was formally installed last evening, the large room in which the installation took place, being beautifully decorated.

This lodge was instituted by the worthy grand president, Sister E. Jones of Waltham and the worthy grand district deputy, E. Adamson of Lawrence, who was assisted by the following suite: Grand conductor, F. G. P. Amle J. Hollins of Lawrence; grand treasurer, P. G. P. Alice Whitehead of North Chelmsford; grand secretary, E. Berry of Lawrence; recording secretary, P. P. James Ball of Lady Washington lodge, Lawrence; vice president, P. P. Hannah Mosely of Lady Washington lodge, Lawrence; chaplain, P. P. Emma Sills of Lady Washington lodge, Lawrence.

The installation ceremony was excellently performed and praise must be given the district officers for the able manner in which they carried out their work. The following ladies were installed as officers of Ivy lodge, 35, I. O. O. F. St. George: past president, Mrs. N. Metcalf; president, Mrs. E. Kibber; vice president, Mrs. M. A. Hovle; recording secretary, Miss H. Waterhouse; financial secretary, Miss

A. Ballinger; treasurer, Mrs. A. Sellers; chaplain, Mrs. R. Hue; first conductor, Mrs. H. Hadley; second conductor, Miss E. Hallinger; inside guard, Mrs. M. Senior; outside guard, Mrs. J. Harrison; trustees, Mrs. M. Caythra, Mrs. L. Armitage, Miss J. Egan.

After the installation the visiting officers and members sat down to a supper and at 10.30 p. m. the affair came to a close.

Visitors were present from Lowell, Lawrence, Waltham and other surrounding towns.

The lodge will meet every second and fourth Tuesday in the month at the lodge room over the post office.

CHELMSFORD

The "Village Blackbirds" gave a most entertaining minstrel show at the town hall, last evening under the direction of Mrs. John B. Emerson, lecturer of the grange.

Mrs. E. T. Adams, in white, made a most excellent interlocutor and the ends, Mrs. J. F. Parker and Mrs. Frank Hadley with the tambos and Mrs. I. H. Knight and Mrs. Ezra E. Mansur with the bones were the right ones in the right places. The ends wore white with red bows and ties and red bands on the skirts. The circle was in white, trimmed with yellow. Those in the circle were Mrs. Hiram Brown, Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Mrs. Harriet Shirley, Miss Hester Baker, Miss Rose Paignon, Miss Elizabeth Cushing, Mrs. C. V. Hazeltine, Miss Abbie Ford, Miss Margaret Sloan, Miss Florence Lupien, Miss Alice Kennedy, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. D. B. George.

An excellent program was presented. Miss Harriet Mansur served as a very capable accompanist. Upon conclusion of the program general dancing with music by Miss Mansur's four piece orchestra was enjoyed until midnight.

Mrs. J. B. Emerson was floor director, assisted by Miss Rachel Marshall, Miss Eliza Spaulding, Miss Maude Hamilton and Miss Hazel Shirley.

Bay State Dye Works

There is such a thing as dyeing and also such a thing as lying. When a person tells you that one dye house is just as good as another, that is lying. There is just as much difference in work done at the Bay State Dye Works as you can imagine. When you have your work done here you can feel sure that you have gone to the best place and will get the best result. That is the truth and we will prove it if you only give us a trial order. THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

Joseph L. Marin's plurality in Lowell came next to that of Foss.

The democratic wards of Lowell have a big responsibility to shoulder
in the defeat of Col. Carmichael. The charge is laid at their door, and no denial seems possible.

LODGE'S CANDIDACY AFFECTED

The election of Foss is a blow to Senator Lodge, but yet the republican majority in the legislature is practically unshaken. That majority can elect Lodge or somebody else, and it is not improbable that the senator will be chosen for the fourth time in spite of all opposition. The only chance of beating him is to get a candidate who will draw the votes of both parties.

ROOSEVELT DISCREDITED ABROAD

Col. Roosevelt has fallen from his high estate in the eyes of the European courts in which he was lionized as the foremost American citizen on his way home from Africa. Perhaps the result of Tuesday's election will convince him that his efforts to save the nation and guide the people are not appreciated. The nation does not care to be saved in the manner
he proposes.His new nationalism has been shelved and as a presidential possibility he will have to keep it company. His record as a huntsman, however, stands unimpeached.

THE PANAMA CANAL

It seems that foreign nations are objecting to the fortification of the Panama Canal by the United States. The canal is being built and paid for by the United States, and it is in all respects a United States enterprise.
If it is to be used in time of war by other nations those who join in the use of it should pay their share of the cost of building it. If England and Japan want to use the canal for sending their ships through in case of war, they should be required to pay part of the expense of the undertaking.The canal is intended for the advancement of commerce by the United States and all the vessels using it must pay toll for passage through this waterway. There must be some income from the use of the canal, and it is reasonable to assume that it will not be as free to foreign nations as to the ships of the United States even in time of peace.

THE HAVERHILL CHARTER

It is to be regretted that City Solicitor Nichols of Haverhill did not address a great mass meeting on the subject of charter reform instead of about 100 citizens invited to the board of trade rooms. His elucidation of the subject was refreshing. He convinced his hearers that the Haverhill charter provides an ideal method of conducting the city's business and one which even in a short time has brought about a wonderful improvement in the financial standing of the city as well as in the manner in which street
and other department work was done.The Haverhill charter has passed beyond the experimental stage, having been adopted by over a score of cities in the same or a slightly modified form and all have practically the same story to tell as the city of Haverhill. That should be sufficiently convincing to the citizens of Lowell.

FALL RIVER'S HIGH DEATH RATE

The city of Fall River is credited by the census bureau of the United States with having the largest death rate of any city in the country except
New Orleans. The death rate of Fall River as calculated by the census bureau is 19.1 and that of New Orleans 20.2. This is a rather serious matter for the city of Fall River. The excessive mortality, it is claimed, is largely due to the great number of deaths of infants and children during the early years of life. The proportion of deaths of infants under one year to the total deaths for Fall River is 29 per cent., and the proportion under five years of age is 50 per cent.This state of affairs calls for immediate action on the part of the city council of Fall River. We have no doubt whatever that the infant mortality can be reduced by a well directed war against tuberculosis. The death rate of Lowell computed on the old population is 19.55 for 1909, but computed on the new population it is 17.74.

THE VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE

The lessons of Tuesday's election indicate that the great American people are not so easily bamboozled after all. They may suffer long and patiently under imposition but eventually in spite of party allegiance or the persuasion of so-called party leaders, they will rise in their might and down slams and humbugs.In general, in one way or another, the verdict of the people was rendered against the republican tariff and the high cost of living.Unfortunately the defeat of republican candidates will not bring immediate relief, but the fact that the national house of representatives in the next congress will be democratic will lead up to legislation on the tariff
that will bring about the desired change. The tariff must be revised downward and the cost of living will then come down despite the fact that Senator Lodge says the tariff has nothing to do with the cost of living.In regard to high prices in this country, it must be admitted that they are fictitious and made so by the absence of competition due to the operation of trusts and the excessive tariff which shelters the trusts. Simply to restore competition that would permit the natural laws of supply and demand to operate would alone reduce the high cost of living to normal conditions.

HEARD REPORTS

Board of Trade Directors Met YesterdayThe directors of the board of trade
held a regular meeting in the new rooms of the organization yesterday.Many reports were heard, including a hopeful report of progress from the committee on new industries.The committee on lay-out of streets
reported plans whereby the laying out
of new streets shall be subject to some expert supervision.The matter of allowing certain organizations to use the rooms was left
to the president and secretary.The executive committee was asked
to take charge of the securing of speakers at the next banquet.An innovation in these meetings was the reading by Secretary Murphy, a detailed report of his activities for the past month. The report showed how
under consideration at this time.The matter of charter revision attracted considerable attention at the meeting, reports on the progress thus far being given and on the plans for further work.New members elected were: Frederick Bailey, John M. Farrell, F. V. Ed-
gell, Charles Sharf, Dr. A. E. Gillard,
Charles Parkhurst, James J. Gray, Arthur Barrett, Thomas A. Golden, Otis
Butler, Charles L. Gauthier.The secretary reported that arrangements had been made with the railroad to have two sections of the New York sleeper reserved for sale to Lowell patrons.

DR. HARMON

CHELMSFORD RESIDENT DIED
IN ARIZONAA telegram was received at Chelmsford yesterday telling of the death at Phoenix, Arizona, of Dr. Arthur A.
Harmon, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas A. Harmon of Bridge street.
Although making his home in the west
for the benefit of his health, no intimation of any change was given in a letter received but a few days ago.
Besides his parents, he leaves one
brother, Harry W. Harmon of Chelmsford.Dr. Harmon graduated from the Chelmsford High school in 1895, and
the following year entered the Massachusetts Agricultural college, from which he was graduated in 1900. He then took up studies at the University of Pennsylvania, from which he graduated with the degree of V. S. in 1902.
After working for a time for the state sanitary board of Pennsylvania, he then entered the service of the United States government at Washington, under the bureau of animal industry.
An attack of pneumonia developed into lung trouble, and in the interest of his health he was transferred to Phoenix,
Arizona, where he continued his work
under the bureau of animal industry.
He had been located there for the past five years and held the position of veterinary inspector.No further particulars of his death
have been received. Arrangements have been made for returning the
body to Chelmsford and announcement
of the funeral will be made later.

DR. T. HANRAHAN

ENTERTAINED BY FOURTH DE-
GREE, K. OF C.The members of Lowell council, K.
of C. of the fourth degree tendered a dinner at the Washington club last evening to Dr. Timothy Hanrahan of Boston, master of the fourth degree.
There were about 30 guests present.At the conclusion of dinner there was an informal discussion. Dr. Thomas A. Carroll of this city presided, and Dr. Hanrahan spoke at considerable length to the guests. Among the visitors were Sir Knight William F. Sullivan of Nashua, James Eagan of Boston and John J. Hill of Woburn.

HOW TO WASH THE HAIR

Avoid using a soap or shampoo containing an excess of alkali. Always select a shampoo made of fine Soap,
Glycerin, Salicylic Acid, White of Eggs
and Coconut Oil. Every one of these things is helpful to the hair and scalp.
Biotin's Head Wash is made of these ingredients, and it is pure and neutral,
containing no free alkali whatever.
It stops the loss of hair, dandruff
disappears and itching ceases. It opens up the pores and removes all dirt, dust and disease germs from the pores. It gives renewed life and vigor to the hair. At all drug and department stores, 25c and 50c.

Defeated St. Mark's in the Annual Game

GROTON, Nov. 10.—Groton school defeated St. Mark's of Southboro, 11 to 0, in their annual game, played on the Groton campus yesterday before one of the largest crowds that ever watched the teams battle. Groton's minority in taking advantage of the mistakes made by the Southboro team enabled the home team to score both touchdowns.

Prior to the game Groton was a slight favorite. It did not actually outplay St. Mark's, and the Southboro boys held it for down several times. Groton won the game because it followed the ball closely, and whenever a St. Mark's player fumbled there was a Groton boy ready to recover it. The game really was won in the first four minutes of the opening period, after Groton had recovered the ball on St. Mark's 10-yard line on a fumbled punt.

Groton's second touchdown was made under practically the same conditions as was the first. Halcomb, kicking a punt on his own 10-yard line, which was recovered by Atkinson, Groton's center.

Groton tried several forward passes, and with two exceptions they were cleverly executed. Hardwick and Frothingham showing up brilliantly in handling them. St. Mark's tried a series of forward passes in the third period, when it had the ball nearly all the time in Groton's territory.

There was a strong wind blowing down the gridiron just as the teams came onto the field. The officials called the captains together, and St. Mark's won the toss. Capt. Beedie taking the wind. It proved beneficial, the team gaining considerable ground because of it.

While St. Mark's had the heavier line, Groton's backfield was much the heavier, and in many instances this advantage told. Groton gained the more ground, chiefly because of its punting. Hardwick punted whenever his goal line was in danger, while Cottrell did not.

Huntington Frothingham of Groton made one of the best runs of the game in the second period. He broke loose on his own 31-yard line and carried the ball to St. Mark's 20-yard line, where Coolidge made a spectacular tackle.

Coolidge, St. Mark's right end, was conspicuous in almost every play, and his splendid tackling prevented Groton's backs from making several long runs. He was slightly hurt in the fourth quarter, but remained in the game. Harry Burnett, at right tackle, at left tackle and Taylor all did some effective playing for the Southboro school.

Atkinson, the home team's center, was in about every play and twice he recovered fumbles made by St. Mark's. During the third period he intercepted a forward pass on which Coolidge would have had a clear field had he caught it. The summary:

BOWLING NEWS
Contests on the Alleys Last Night

Last night was a big night on the alleys, the welders of the small balls turning out in large numbers. There were several big pin contests also.

In the Catholic league the Knights of Columbus team defeated the Y. M. C. U., winning all three points. Conn of the winning aggregation was high man with singles of 113, 105 and 114 and a triple of 332.

The Wamesits defeated the Primrose Five by a good margin, while the married men of Tyngsboro turned the trick on the single men of the same town. The game between the Mongeaus and Ledgers resulted in a victory for the former team. Two strong teams, the Tigers and Cubs, had at it, and the Tigers won.

CLAM SUPPER SERVED
The annual clam supper run under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the First Trinitarian church was held last night.

There were about 200 persons present. Miss Elsie M. Cragin, president of the society, had general charge of the affair.
W. H. Sullivan was the chef who prepared the clams.
Later in the evening a club of young people from the Pawtucket church put on a comedy in two scenes, entitled "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone." It was funny and well acted. The cast was as follows: "Mrs. Oakley," a bride, Mrs. Park; "Constance," her friend, Mrs. Ayer; "Emma," the Gorman maid, Miss Mansfield, and "Marry," the cook, Miss Cummings.

REGULAR MEETING

Of Grocers and Butchers Last Night

The Lowell Retail Grocers and Butchers association met last night at the Builders' Exchange in Appleton street. There was a large attendance and much business was transacted during the evening.

The meeting was presided over by Vice-President John J. McCann. An amendment to the constitution, extending duties to the treasurer and carrying with the office a salary, was favorably acted upon by the body.
Mr. George Maguire, who represented the local association at the meeting of the Food-Trade legislative committee, held recently, submitted an interesting report. The object of this committee is to secure united action on the part of the food and trade organizations to the end that hasty and unwise legislation may be prevented and that wise laws that will protect the trade and consumer, may be enacted. The Lowell representative was chosen chairman of the committee on constitution and by-laws of the new organization.

Mr. David Gero and Mr. A. W. Gray spoke interestingly on the work of the state association. All grocers were again urged to live up to the Thursday afternoon closing rule adopted at the previous meeting.

WHIST PARTY
HELD AT ASSOCIATE HALL BY COURT ST. ANTOINE

A well attended and highly successful whist party and concert was held at Associate Hall last night under the auspices of Court St. Antoine, Catholic Order of Foresters. The hall was taxed to its capacity but nevertheless those who attended had a good time.

Denis Descheneaux, president of the committee, opened the affair by welcoming those present and then introduced Mr. Frank Ricard as master of ceremonies. Mayor John F. McEgan was also present and spoke in an interesting manner of the advantages of membership in such a society.

At the conclusion of the mayor's remarks, an entertainment program was carried out.
The judges awarding the prizes were Mayor McEgan, J. F. Rochette, Dr. Payette, Fred Rochette, J. E. Bellemare, J. J. Chénier, J. J. Peltier, J. B. Scard, Onestime Tremblay, Jean Paradis, Charles A. Deland, Edouard Desrosiers, Alfred Ducharme, Edgar Montmarquet, Archibald Archambault, J. J. Ferron, Eugene Poplin, Coudette, Patricia J. H. Robitaille, Joseph Parent, Lucien Ducharme, Abraham L'Anglais and Frank Ricard, president of the court, ex-officio.

The committee in charge of the affair was as follows:
Denis Descheneaux, general manager; Alex Morin, assistant general manager; Noe Daunais, secretary; J. H. Gregoire, treasurer; Leonie L'Ange, assistant treasurer; J. E. Bellemare, J. J. Chénier, J. J. MURDER CHARGED

Wife of Millionaire Pork Packer Placed Under Arrest

Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenck, wife of John O. Schenck, a millionaire pork packer of this city, was arrested and locked up last night on a warrant issued by the prosecuting attorney, charging attempted murder of her husband during his illness by administering poison in mineral waters. Mr. Schenck was taken to the North Wheeling hospital two weeks ago and since that time repeated attempts of Mrs. Schenck to have him taken back to their palatial home in Wheeling have been contested by Mr. Schenck's relatives. Mr. Schenck is in a critical condition.

The arrest was made last night following the receipt of telegrams from chemists in New York city and Baltimore, giving the analysis of the mineral water alleged to have been administered. Mr. Schenck, Mrs. Schenck is in jail and is not admitted to ball. She refused to make a statement regarding the allegations.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Is on His Way to Panama

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 10.—President Taft sailed today for Panama to get into personal touch with conditions along the big canal. Mr. Taft visited the isthmus just before his inauguration in 1909, but since various executive and engineering problems have arisen and congress must frame legislation as to rates of toll, form of government, the regulation of the sale of coal, the disposition of the Panama railroad and many other things. The president expects to make various recommendations regarding the canal at the coming short session of congress.

Mr. Taft sailed on the armored cruiser Tennessee with the cruiser Montana as convoy. Both cruisers have a speed of 22 knots and will make the trip to Colon in four days. Mr. Taft expects to be on the isthmus for four days and is due back in Charleston Nov. 22. He will stop over a few hours in Richmond on the 23rd and be back in Washington that afternoon. The president's special squadron is under the command of Rear Admiral Stanton with the Tennessee as flagship.

Before sailing the president reviewed groups of white and colored school children here. The president is making a purely business trip to Panama and accompanied only by his brother, Charles F. Taft, Secretary Norton, two aides, a physician and stenographer.

THE AUTO CRANK KICKED

Louis Cassaca, aged 26 years and residing in Revere, suffered an injury to his right hand while attempting to crank up the engine of an automobile in Church street about 3.30 o'clock last night. He was taken to the Emergency hospital, where it was found that one of the small bones was fractured.

JAPANESE PARTY

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR AT THE
KIRK STREET CHURCH

The vestry of the Kirk Street church was the scene, last night, of a delightful Japanese entertainment. Everything about the affair was Japanese. It was under the direction of Mrs. W. B. Morse, assisted by Mrs. G. L. Richardson and Mrs. Samuel H. Thompson.

Miss Helen Gegenheimer and Miss Vera Wood had charge of the entertainment program, which was a Japanese sketch that won much applause. Other features of the program were readings by little Miss Elsie Aspen, violin solos by Mr. Arthur Booth, and songs by Miss May Eveleth, Mr. A. C. Spaulding accompanying.

Miss Grace Cummoek presided at a tea table in the main room, with Mrs. R. B. Currier assisting.

In the serving room were Miss Mary Hall and Mrs. G. E. Richardson. The tables and the attendants were:

Gate table: Mrs. Murray, Mr. Pratt, Mrs. F. A. Flather, Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Victor Carey, Mrs. D. M. Pratt, Mrs. Wm. Osgood, Mrs. Knowles, Mrs. Albert Green, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Lamson, Mrs. Frank Putnam, Mrs. William Mitchell.

Ice cream: Mrs. S. B. Wetherbee, Mrs. D. W. Dewar, Mrs. F. J. Harris, Mrs. J. N. Marston, Mrs. C. H. Dickson.

Candy: Miss Gladys Healey, Misses Marion Simpson, Alice Richardson, Hazel Chadwick, Katherine Dover, Mabel Harvey, Olga Phil, Hazel Wirt, Margaret Thompson, Edith James, Mrs. Charles W. CARS HELD UP

As the Result of an Accident

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Thousands of suburbanites who depend on the cars of the Boston elevated system to reach their homes, caused housewives much uneasiness between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening, and late suppers were eaten as the result of an impairment of a portion of the company's power.

The western part of Somerville marked one limit of the area affected and Brookline and Newton the other, with Brighton and Cambridge completing the intermediate area.

In West Somerville street cars just managed to get enough headway to move along at a snail's pace, taking 25 minutes to go three-quarters of a mile. The cars were left in almost complete darkness, the incandescent lamps barely glowing.

On Broadway, considerable difficulty was experienced in climbing the grade of Winter Hill, and the same situation was true on the grade of Holland street at Chardon Hill.

Motormen often found their cars slipping down hill. Use of the brake was necessary frequently to save the situation. As a result 30 cars were bunched on the outward track and 25 on the inward-bound.

In Cambridge, Brighton, Brookline and Newton the situation was the same.

TURKISH LOAN

OF 7,000,000 POUNDS TO BE FLOATED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The Deutsch bank is at the head of a syndicate of all the principal German and Austrian banks, including the Rothschilds, which will take the Turkish loan of 7,000,000 pounds Turkish (approximately $1,500,000).

The price is $4, with interest at 4 per cent. The loan will be secured by the customs revenues at Constantinople.

Germany secures the Ottoman loan after the failure of negotiations with Great Britain and France.

The loan is understood, is desired chiefly for the development of the Turkish army and navy, and it is thought that one of the obstacles to placing the loan in France or England was the reputed intention of Turkey to use the funds secured in the purchase of war materials in Germany.

WAS FOUND DANGLING FROM A POLE

MACON, Ga., Nov. 10.—Telephone "trouble men" looking for wire trouble near Montezuma, Ga. came upon the cause in an unexpected and gruesome way when they found the body of a negro dangling from a pole and tangled up in the telephone wires. This was the negro lynched by a mob the morning before, charged with the murder of Marshal Bush of Montezuma. The "trouble" was removed.

JAILER KILLED

JACKSON, Ky., Nov. 10.—Wesley Turner, jailer of Breathitt county, was shot and killed on a street near the jail last night by "Bad Jack" Noble, a noted feudist and a prominent figure in the Harkis and Cockrill feuds. No cause for the killing is known. Turner and Noble had been close friends.

FRENCH-AMERICAN ORPHANAGE

Rev. Fr. Watelle, O. M. I., of St. Joseph's church states that he has sixty applications on the waiting list for admission to the French-American Orphanage at the corner of School and Pawtucket streets. There are at present about 150 children in the orphanage, 100 being girls. They receive instruction in the building, twelve gray nuns being the teachers. This building was formerly the home of Frederick Ayer and is one of the most beautiful in Lowell. Rev. Fr. Watelle says there is great need of a general orphanage for the entire city as some of the parishes have many children that should be placed in such an institution if any were available.

MONITOR PURITAN ROBBERS SCARED

Pieces Woman's Screams Drove Them Away

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 10.—In order to test the resisting power of armor plate when it comes in direct contact with high explosives, the monitor Puritan, which ten years ago cost $1,500,000, will be blown to pieces in Norfolk harbor next Tuesday. The Puritan, now at Norfolk navy yard, will be towed to Craney Island and experts from the navy department will place mines along her waterline. These will be connected by electric wires running to the island and at the appointed time the charges will be exploded.

Naval officials from Washington will witness the test and officers of the local navy yard and from the ships now here also will be spectators.

The spot selected for the destruction of the Puritan is almost the identical place where the Merrimack, of Civil war fame, was destroyed by confederates to prevent her falling into the hands of the Yankees.

An attempt was also made to enter the houses of James J. Winn, 55 Proctor avenue, but the burglars were frightened away by a dog. The only thing taken from the Davidson house was a parrot which the burglars set out in the back yard, evidently to keep it from talking.

SPEAKER WALKER

Is Out for the Governor-

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Joseph Walker of Brookline, speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives, announced yesterday that he was a candidate for re-election as speaker in 1911 and for the republican nomination for governor next fall.

The announcement was drawn from him at this time partly because he was being mentioned as a candidate for the United States senate against Sen. Lodge, and partly because his friends feared the strong showing made by Lieut.-Gov. Frothingham in the state election would prevent the breaking of the succession custom, in which they do not believe.

Before the election the republican leaders were planning to sidetrack Mr. Frothingham and nominate some other man for governor next year. In this connection the name of Congressman Weeks has been prominently mentioned.

Mr. Frothingham has never received much support from what is known as the machine, and whether it would be with him in a fight with Walker is a question. Mr. Walker says he will appeal for nomination directly to the rank and file of the party. In his announcement, he says:

"So many of my friends are asking me what my plans for the future are that I have decided to make the following announcement:

"I have been elected to the legislature of 1911. I am a candidate for speaker of the house of representatives. I shall not accept another nomination for election to the house, but shall run for governor of the commonwealth next fall. I shall make my appeal for nomination directly to the rank and file of the republican party, and shall depend for active support upon my friends and upon those who believe in the principles and policies for which I stand.

"I believe the greatest evils in politics today is the excessive use of money. Unless the nomination of my party comes to me without the use of money, directly or indirectly, I do not wish it. I also wish to state that, if I am again elected speaker of the house of representatives, I shall not allow my candidacy for governor to influence my committee appointments or my other acts as speaker in the slightest degree."

$50,000,000 LOAN

LONDON, Nov. 10.—An agreement was signed today by which English, German and French banks will participate in the loan of $50,000,000 which an American syndicate will make to China.

The agreement provides also for the co-operation of the signatories in the matter of future loans to the Chinese government and mutual participation therein. The banks concerned are the Morgan house, the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Co., the bank of India China and the Dutch East Asiatic bank.

NAVAL DEPOT TRANSFERS

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 10.—The formal transfer of the Esquimaux naval depot from the control of the British admiralty to the Canadian government was made today, great ceremony marking the occasion. In the presence of the deputy minister of the naval service, Admiral Kingsmith and other officers, the British Union Jack was hauled down by sailors from the British warship Shearwater. Then another Union Jack was hoisted by the men of the Canadian cruiser Rainbow, which arrived from England Monday.

PROFESSOR PARKER

Says Dr. Cook Never Ascended Mount McKinley

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Prof. Herschel C. Parker of Columbia university who recently returned from his exploration of Mount McKinley, today made public a series of photographs taken near the Alaskan mountain which he claims is indisputable evidence that Dr. Frederick A. Cook never reached the top of the highest peak in America.

Prof. Parker states that he found the mountain peak which Dr. Cook photographed and called Mt. McKinley the "top of the continent" and in support of this statement showed a photograph of a mountain peak taken by his expedition last summer and pointed out that a comparison of the two photographs shows in detail identical outlines of rock formation, proving that they are pictures of the same mountain.

"The mountain which I photographed," said Prof. Parker, "was twenty miles away from Mount McKinley and 15,000 feet below its summit. This is the same peak that Cook photographed and called the 'top of the continent'."

Prof. Parker corroborated the contention made a year ago by Edward Barrill, guide of Dr. Cook that they never reached the top of Mount McKinley.

"We left our boat on the Tokositna at about the same spot where Dr. Cook and Barrill took to the ice," said Prof. Parker, who was a member of Dr. Cook's expedition in 1906. "My idea was to follow as closely as possible the route taken by the doctor and we had no difficulty in doing this with Barrill's map at hand. In a few days our party reached the spot noted on the map as the point where Barrill's picture was taken. This was in the Amphitheatre glacier in the foothills of Mount McKinley, twenty miles from its base.

"Having reached the place the problem now confronting us was to pick out the rock on which Barrill stood when he was photographed with the flag in his hand. This, perhaps, was easier to do than one might imagine, in spite of the fact that there were innumerable rocky peaks on all sides of us. There will be noticed in the lower right hand corner of Dr. Cook's photograph a peak in the distance, the snow formation on the top of which should make it easily distinguishable. It was, therefore, a comparatively simple matter to identify the peak as the second of the seven peaks of Ruth glacier, only a few miles away from where we stood. Dr. Cook has said there are twelve peaks, but he evidently did not carry his investigations far enough to discover there are only seven. Then we soon found the rock we wanted in the snow saddle. Barrill mentioned and at last we are at the 'top of the continent'."

"You will remember that Barrill in the picture in Dr. Cook's book captioned 'First day of the twelve new peaks of Ruth glacier' was taken on the same day that Dr. Cook took the famous photograph of the guide. That this statement was true is readily noted. In another of the pictures entitled 'An amphitheatre' the rock itself on which Barrill stood may be seen.

"On account of the formation of the snow cornice it was impossible to photograph the rock from the exact spot where Dr. Cook himself stood. These cornices are shaped according to the whims of the winds that blow and the formation varies from year to year. It will also be noted that there is more snow in the photograph I took. This is due to the fact that I was there in July, while Dr. Cook's photograph was taken in September.

A considerable amount of snow would naturally melt away in two summer months. But you can readily see that the photographs are of one and the same rock and a very paltry rock it is at that. I duplicated a number of other photographs in Dr. Cook's book at totally different points from where the doctor says they were taken and these, with a detailed account of my expedition, will be made public at a later date. But these photographs are of far less importance than that of the 'summit' itself. After getting all the material I wanted in this neighborhood we pushed on twenty miles farther to the base of McKinley and made numerous attempts to cross to the northeast ridge of the mountain. But our passage was effectually cut off by a 12,000 foot range of ice peaks at the head of Ruth glacier, which were impassable on account of planades and crevices. Dr. Cook makes no mention of them in his book, never having been far enough to see them. Then, turning back, we went as far as possible on the south-west face of McKinley and after reaching an elevation of 10,000 feet, gave up any further attempts to scale the mountain. While I regret that we were unable to get to the top still we had accomplished the object of my mission and felt well satisfied with the result of the expedition."

When asked what he thought of the despatches from Alaska in the early summer saying that Tom Lloyd had reached the top of the mountain, Prof. Parker said he desired to correct some statements which had been attributed to him concerning the matter.

"I never said," he declared, "that Tom Lloyd did not reach Mt. McKinley's summit. What I did say was that although our party got within seven miles of it none of us could see, even with the strongest of glasses, the flag or pole Lloyd says he planted there to stay. How ridiculous, therefore, the statements were that the flag had been seen from Fairbanks, 14 miles away."

Prof. Parker, in spite of his failure to conquer McKinley, believes that a way will yet be found to scale the mountain.

SUICIDE AT SEA

Woman Jumped Overboard From Steamer

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The suicide at sea of Mrs. Hanny Rice, wife of H. W. Rice of 51 Hawes street, of Providence, R. I., was reported when the steamer Zealand arrived here today from Liverpool and Queenstown. Mrs. Rice, who had been living for a while at Manchester, England, and was returning to America, had appeared melancholy on the voyage across. Last Friday morning Mrs. Rice suddenly kissed the hand of a woman with whom she was talking and then leaped into the sea. Because of the severe weather the steamer was proceeding at half speed and it was impossible to put the ship about without grave danger of other passengers being washed overboard. Mrs. Rice was about 40 years old.

Charged With Murder of Husband

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Nov. 10.—"We were out in the field and as he was showing me how to shoot the gun he stumbled and the gun went off."

This was the explanation of the fatal shooting of Frank Averill given by his wife to a daughter of Mrs. Frank Wells, according to Mrs. Wells' testimony in the trial of Mrs. Averill, charged with the murder of her husband. It was to the home of Mrs. Wells, adjoining his own, that Averill dragged himself after being shot. While on the stand Mrs. Wells faintly.

Another witness, Mrs. John Bird, burst into tears as she told of being at the Averill home when Averill's body was brought from the hospital. Thereupon Mrs. Averill also broke down and wept.

It is understood that the state will rest its case tomorrow and that the defense will open. Counsel for the defense said today that the case will reach its climax with Mrs. Averill on the witness stand.

U.S. AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Official despatches giving details of the anti-American demonstration in Mexico City yesterday reached the state department today. U. S. Ambassador Wilson and Consul General Franklin.

Mr. Wilson confirmed the press reports that he had protested to the Mexican department of foreign relations against the insults offered Americans and that the riot grew out of the lynching of a Mexican, Antonio Rodriguez, at Rock Springs, Texas, on Nov. 7.

Mr. Franklin's despatch said that the riotous students who paraded the streets cried, "Death to the Americans" and threatened the consulate. He also told how these students had pulled an American flag from a business house and had trampled it under foot.

The department is awaiting further advice from Ambassador Wilson before taking any action in the matter.

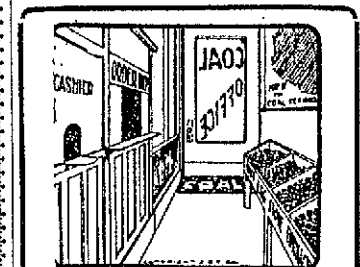

Ambassador De la Barra called at the state department about noon but he said he had no information from his government regarding the anti-American demonstration in the city of Mexico.

The two governments are in this position:

If the state department here finds that Ambassador Wilson's reports are justified a polite request must be made upon Mexico for an expression of regret and also for suitable reparation if any damage has been suffered by Americans. On the other hand, the Mexican government must look to the state department for a similar expression and reparation in the case of Antonio Rodriguez, the Mexican who was reported to have been burned at the stake by a mob of Texans at Rock Springs.

It should turn out that the Mexican police actually killed several of the rioters in the city of Mexico then it may be that the state department will take the ground that the Mexican government's attitude is satisfactory and that it had meted out the necessary punishment to the guilty parties, while so far as known no American has been punished for the burning of Rodriguez.

It is not believed that either of these indications will have any immediate serious results.

It Won't Last Forever

You may be foolish enough to think that GEORGE HENRY WOOD, the Wholesale and Retail Dealer, who has bought the Grant Jewelry Stock, will be able to keep giving valuable, ornamental and useful jewelry at less than half the regular price of the other dealers, but if you do think so that is a mistake as there is an end to all good things, and there will be an end to the Big Bankrupt Sale; but while it lasts we propose to make it a hummer and a sale long to be remembered. Do not fail to be one of the lucky purchasers. Start right in and make your Christmas purchases at this sale.

LISTENED TO LECTURES BY AMERICAN PROFESSORS

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—Hugo Muensterberg, professor of psychology at Harvard university, and C. Alphonso Smith, professor of English literature at the University of Virginia, American exchange professors, gave the evening lectures of their 1910-1911 courses in the Aula of the University of Berlin today. Emperor William was present and appeared greatly interested in what he heard. He was accompanied by Empress Auguste Victoria, Prince Auguste William and several court officials. Others present were Ambassador Hill and the staff of the American embassy, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Muensterberg, her two daughters, many high government officials and Americans resident in Berlin.

Prof. Smith, whose lecture was introductory to a series on "American literature since 1800," interspersed his remarks with frequent allusions, and never failed to evoke a laugh from the emperor.

Prof. Muensterberg, whose subject will be "The newer phases of psychology," with particular reference to the psychology of workingmen, dwelt on America's indebtedness to German thought.

The W. T. Wonder Test Corset

The only corset that actually reduces. Common sense will tell you that a corset with band hooked permanently in place or with a so-called reinforced front cannot reduce only to the extent to which the back laces can be drawn. The Wonder Test Corset after being laced in the usual manner then allows for an adjustment which still further reduces, producing an effect impossible with any other corset. Make it a point to visit our second floor, corset department, and see this corset. Special price $2.00

WE ARE OFFERING THIS WEEK A $2.00 CORSET, extra long hips, fine quality, coutil, trimmed with deep lace and has draw strings. Special price.... $1.39
